Clevelander Linked With Pike Killings

2-State Alert Out for Ex-Factory Worker; Victim's Watch Found

CLEVELAND (AP) — Homicide Capt. David E. Kerr said today Cleveland police have issued a two-state alarm to pick up 25-year-old man for questioning in the recent Pennsylvania Turnpike shootings.

Kerr identified the man as John Wesley Wable, a former Cleveland factory worker. He emphasized no charges have been filed against Wable, but said a girl had linked him with a wrist watch taken from one of the victims.

Kerr said the pickup alarm went to Ohio and Pennsylvania police and added that Wable "may be armed and dangerous."

The man was last seen driving a light-blue 1952 car with Pennsylvania license plates bearing the number, 8157E, and also has been issued Ohio plates, GG8487, Kerr said.

Girl Questioned

The girl who was questioned, a 22-year-old blonde, was a girl friend of Wable, Kerr said. She was released after questioning.

According to Kerr, a .765 German made revolver was turned over to police by the girl's stepfather. The gun was similar to the one used in the turnpike shootings, Kerr said.

The police official quoted the stepfather as saying Wable gave him the gun for safe-keeping several weeks ago.

Detectives George Gackowski and Louis Jalovec held the girl for questioning after recovering in a pawn shop a watch taken from the wrist of John K Shepard, who was shot and seriously wounded July 31 near Lisbon, Ohio.

Detectives said the blonde was the girl friend of a youth they seek in connection with the killing last July of two truck drivers on the turnpike and the wounding of Shepard

Denies Whereabouts

The girl denied knowing his whereabouts, but detectives described the man as about 24-years old, 6 feet tall, and weighing about 155 pounds.

Shepard's watch was found at David's Loan Co. at 15207 St Clair Ave., after police had sent a circular to all pawn shops in Cleveland describing the watch, giving its serial number, and Shepard's description of the gunman.

Operators of David's Loan Co. found the serial number on a watch which they said was accepted Aug. 4, from a uniform plant worker matching Shepard's description of the gunman.

Former Driver

The uniform worn by the man who pawned the watch was from an east side electrical plant, where detectives learned he had quit a week ago.

They also learned the man was a former truck driver who was familiar with turnpike routes, and has been driving a car with Pennsylvania license plates.

Checking his last known residence, they found he had been missing from an east side rooming house for about a week and had been keeping company with the blonde, whom they took to Central Police Station today.

Homicide Capt David C. Kerr said ballistics tests will be made to determine whether the 32 caliber revolver found in the girl's room was the one used in the three turnpike attacks.

Previous ballistics tests have indicated the same weapon was used in all three shootings

The truck driver victims of the shootings were:

Shepard, 34, of West Alexandria, Pa., who was shot in the head and wounded seriously while he slept in his truck near Lisbon.

Harry F. Pitts, 39, of Bowling Green, Va., was shot to death in the cab of his parked truck near Irwin, Pa., an robbed of about $85.

$300,000 Is Still Missing In Kidnaping

Thomas J. Marsh, 37, Remains At-Large; FBI Refuses To Talk

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A hunt was on today for both an ex-convict accused of being an accomplice in the kidnap-slaying of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease and some $300,000 of ransom money still missing.

The FBI refused to answer any questions about its part in the hunt for Thomas John Marsh, 37-year-old former Missouri convict, in the face of reports from numerous cities across the nation it had issued no pick-up order.

No Complaint Issued

All the FBI here would say is that there has been no federal complaint issued against Marsh. The U. S. district attorney's office said it had no comment at this stage beyond saying it was in the middle of the investigating.

Meanwhile, at St Joseph, Mo., 55 miles north of here, FBI men were reported minutely examining the yard and home of one of the abductors held in St. Louis, 41-year-old Mrs Bonnie Brown Heady

Twenty FBI agents were reported even sifting garbage taken from the home in the last two weeks.

Dug From Grave

The child's body was dug yesterday from a shallow grave in Mrs. Heady's backyard after she and her boy friend, 34-year-old Carl Austin Hall, were arrested at St. Louis for the kidnaping. The arrests followed payment of a record $600,000 ransom by the boy's wealthy parents.

Robert Ledterman, a spokesman for the Greenlease family, gave details of the fruitless negotiations carried on with the kidnapers. Ledterman is a close friend and business associate of the 71-year-old father.

Reports came from several parts of the country that a person resembling the tattooed Marsh, had been seen. Missouri, New York and Iowa were among the states in which alarms were flashed.

Mother Pleads for Boy

During the highly secret negotiations, Mrs. Greenlease twice went to the telephone to plead for assurances her boy was safe.

Ledterman said the kidnaper apparently had no fear of being traced through telephone calls. He called frequently.

"I talked to him every day, and sometimes 10 minutes at a stretch," Ledterman said.

Twice unsuccessful attempts were made to turn the ransom money over to the kidnapers. Finally the money, in accordance with instructions, was thrown over a bridge in eastern Jackson County near Kansas City last Sunday night, where it was picked up.

The kidnaper acknowledged in a telephone call that he had received the money.

After the money finally was exchanged successfully, a telephone

Allies Accused Of Stalling in Prisoner Talks

Commission Says U.N. Causing Delay in Repatriation Meetings

SEOUL (AP)—The Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission today accused the Allies of trying to stall away more of the dwindling 90-day period allotted for interviews with 23,000 war prisoners who refuse to return to their homelands.

The Allies offered to build temporary facilities in a week, but the commission said the Reds proposed building in four days a permanent center which the UNC said would complete in a month.

The NNRC told the UNC pointedly that the Reds offered to take only four days to build an explanation center which the Allies estimated would require a month.

Truce terms specify that the explanation period end Christmas Eve. The Allies have turned down repeated NNRC and Red requests for an extension

In a letter to the UNC Thursday, the NNRC said bluntly:

"The commission is not prepared to be a party to the curtailment of the period. . . particularly in view of the fact that the U. N. Command is unable to agree to an extension. . ."

Labor Union Strikes Marion Building Firm

A lone picket at a construction project on E. Church St., today signaled the start of a strike by Labor Union Local 574, AFL, against the Marion Contracting Co

Whether or not other building companies in the city would be affected was not clear The picket and a union official would not say how many men were called off, or if other contractors would be struck No work was being done at the construction site, located at the corner of Church and High St

Local 574 is composed of construction laborers.

Officials of the Marion Contracting Co could not be reached for comment and William Farell, financial secretary, and business agent for the union refused comment

Spokesmen for the Marion Contractors Association, which is composed of the major contractors in the city, said the union claims an oral agreement was reached with association providing that if a wage increase was granted carpenters, then the laborers and bricklayers would get a similar increase.

The association denies such an agreement was made

The contractors association and representatives of the three building unions—carpenters, bricklayers and laborers—negotiated a written agreement in May proving for wage increases. The new wage rates, which went into effect July 1, were laborers, up 10 cents an hour to $1.92½, bricklayers, up 10 cents to $3.10, and carpenters, up 25 cents to $2.75.

Now the laborers and bricklayers want contractors to increase their pay 15 cents to maintain pace with the carpenters, the contractors association spokesman said

Some of the members of the association have granted the request for more pay, but others have not Two of the latter are Marion Contracting and Steward Construction Co. Steward reported no men had struck on their jobs.

Too Much Loose Talk

'Atomic Blabbermouths' Believed in Bad With Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Several Democratic senators said today confusion is being spread by Eisenhower administration spokesmen on the danger of an atomic or hydrogen bomb attack by the Russians.

"It is high time that the National Security Council or the President himself made a plain statement of the facts as they are known in this matter of life and death," said Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn).

President Eisenhower had an opportunity to speak out at a news conference late today if he wished.

The New York Times said today that Eisenhower "has decided to put a stop to loose official talk about the Soviet Union's possible hydrogen bomb and related subjects."

Irked at 'Blabbermouth'

A Washington dispatch by James Reston said the President was annoyed by what one leader called "atomic blabbermouths" within the governmental family.

Eisenhower, Reston wrote, has passed the word that he wants all official statements on this subject to conform to the decisions of the National Security Council or to be cleared at the White House.

Asked about the report, White House sources who were available last night said they knew nothing of a crackdown.

In a speech in New Jersey two days ago, he said the "mysteries of the atom" are known to Russia He warned that atomic warfare might doom "every nation and society."

Later the same day Secretary of Defense Wilson said it might be "stretching it a bit" to say that Russia now has a practical hydrogen bomb and the planes to deliver it

Moscow claimed on Aug 20 to have tested experimentally a type of hydrogen bomb. The U. S. Atomic Energy Commission said it had detected a Soviet atomic explosion which produced "thermonuclear (hydrogen) reactions."

AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss has spoken of the explosion in Russia of a hydrogen "device"—presumably an experimental model not suitable for use in warfare.

"The Soviets with their smaller industrial establishment were able to test a thermonuclear device within nine months of our own," Strauss said in a Sept. 30 speech in New York.

Wilson voiced doubt on Tuesday that Russia would be able to carry on sustained atomic warfare within three years, and he said he thought this country had a lead of three or four years on the Soviets in atomic weapons development.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn) said he had been struck by what he regarded as differences in Eisenhower's and Wilson's statements on Tuesday. "I have a little difficulty in following it," he said.

Halloweeners Get Destructive in City

Although the actual night is still more than three weeks away, city police received four complaints of Halloween activity last night.

The meanest trick reported, according to Police Chief Tom Coon, occurred on E. Mark St. where halloweeners opened the front door of the home of a crippled woman, threw a pint of ice cream against a wall and drove away in a car.

Halloweeners also broke 28 light bulbs at the Lincoln-Mercury car lot They also broke milk bottles on a front porch and at another residence threw a milk bottle through a window in the front door

Closing of AEC Plant in Marion Expected Soon

Executives of the Monsanto Chemical Co are expecting an order from the Atomic Energy Commission to shut down Marion's Scioto Laboratory about the first of the year, Allen B. Morton, resident business manager, announced today.

Such an order would affect 35 employes, Morton said. He added that the company has advised employes of the situation.

Following the order, about six months would be required to transfer equipment to other plants and to dispose of surplus supplies, he said.

According to Morton, no layoffs are contemplated at this time as it is believed normal turnover of personnel will take care of the necessary reduction in force.

Monsanto's Scioto Laboratory is located about five miles northeast of Marion on the site of the wartime Scioto Ordnance Plan. Construction was begun in June 1948 and completed in September 1949 with operations beginning about the middle of that year.

Monsanto's Mound Laboratory in Miamisburg recently had a 30 per cent reduction in personnel upon an order from the AEC

Dr J J. Burbage is director of both the Scioto and Mound Laboratories

3 Specialists Deny They Are Security Risks

Radar Experts Make Names Public, Plan Fight Against Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three radar specialists, including one who said he went to college with convicted spy Morton Sobell, say they were among the civilian workers suspended by the Army "for security reasons."

All three denied being security risks and declared they would fight the charges on which they were suspended from jobs at the Army Signal Corps' Fort Monmouth, N J, radar research laboratories.

The Army said yesterday it has given no one outside the executive branch of the government the names of the suspended employes or any information about the case. It declined to give even the number involved or the precise nature of the charges

Works With Probers

However, an Army spokesman said it was cooperating with the Senate investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis). The spokesman said the Army is permitting the group to question Fort Monmouth workers.

The three who named themselves yesterday were:

Aaron H. Coleman, 35, of Long Branch, N. J., quoted by the Newark Evening News as saying he was told by the government that he was being suspended because of people he knew in college and at work.

Harold Ducore, 34, also of Long Branch, whom the News quoted as saying he was suspended after 12 years of working on radar projects at Fort Monmouth

Hyam G Yamins of Newton, Mass, named in Boston by his attorney, Samuel Markell, as one of the suspended employes.

The News reported it was also told by Coleman:

"Unfortunately, I was in the same graduating class with Sobell and some others. I had no social relations with him after that. But in my capacity as a government project engineer I met him several

Schools in City Increase Facilities for Cafeterias

Marion public schools will boast a five-school cafeteria program by next week.

In addition to the lunchroom facilities already in operation at the new Harding High School, Edison and Robert A. Taft Junior High Schools and George Washington Elementary School, which opened today, the cafeteria at Mark Street School will open next Wednesday.

THE ENTIRE CITY SCHOOL cafeteria system is under the supervision of Miss Helen Hutchins, whose office is located at the new Harding building, next to the school's spotless kitchen where the daily school lunches are prepared. Miss Hutchins, who is beginning her fourth year in the Marion system, was stationed last year at Taft Junior High, formerly State Street School, where she directed the lunchroom planning at that building and at Edison Junior High. The lunchroom at Edison began last year, while Taft School had a lunchroom in April, 1951. Prior to assuming her duties in Marion, Miss Hutchins had 10 years experience in lunchroom supervision.

The three main purposes of the city school lunchroom program is to provide from one-third to one-half of a child's daily nutritional requirements: assist in agricultural economy by using foods plen-

Britain's Eden Urges Big Four Hold Meetings

MARGATE, England (AP) — Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden stated today that Britain intends to continue pressing for a meeting of the Big Four heads of state despite Russia's negative response to the first overture by Prime Minister Churchill.

Loudly cheered by 4,000 Conservative party members at the opening session of the party's annual conference. Eden in his first speech since an ailing liver and gall bladder sickened him six months ago asserted British policy "has not changed" and he "gladly" restated it:

1. "To maintain the unity and strength of the Western Alliance."

2. "To keep our alliance defensive in character, to indulge in no provocation and to take advantage of any and every opportunity which may arise for settling difficulties and solving disputes."

"That is our policy. There is room in it for any meeting or conference which seems to be practicable or profitable. There is certainly room in it for assurances to the Soviets that we do not threaten their security. We are

Open House Program Ends Saturday Night

An estimated 8,000 persons have toured the new YMCA building so far this week in an open house program which will continue until 6 p.m. Saturday.

Tonight and Friday the building will be open to the public until 9 p.m. The doors open each morning at 9 a.m. The building was dedicated Sunday.

Roomers at the "Y" moved from the old building to their new quarters at the beginning of the week. No meetings or other activities were scheduled this week because of the open house.

During the week, though, reservations have been taken at the building from church groups and others who wished to use the special rooms designed for such meetings. They will be put in use beginning next week.

Brooklyn Youth, 17, Takes Life, Feared He Killed Father

NEW YORK (AP)—A 17 - year-old boy, fearing he had killed his father in an altercation, stood on a subway track yesterday and let a train grind him to death.

His father later was found unhurt from a punch thrown by the boy.

Police said Gerald Rosenthal, a Brooklyn high school senior, had in a pocket a note which read: "I just killed my father. I leave all my worldly goods to my mother."

The boy had punched his father, Jack Rosenthal, 47, an Internal Revenue Service clerk, during an argument and saw him stagger backward and appear to fall on a sidewalk in front of their home.

Crestline Mayor Given $900 Salary Increase

Special to The Star

CRESTLINE — The salary of Crestline's mayor was doubled, effective next Jan. 1, at the Monday night meeting of Crestline Council, and the treasurer's salary was also raised.

The mayor's salary was hiked from $900 a year to $1,800 and will take effect Jan. 1, under an emergency measure. The treasurer, who will receive $400 annually instead of $250, and councilmen, who were given an increase of $3 over the present $2 per meeting, will not realize their raises until effective date of the increase, Jan. 1, 1956, as required under state election laws which specify that an elected official cannot be given an increase in salary while he is serving a term in office.

The mayor's salary increase will replace the mayor's court fees which will not be paid any more to the top official, under a state law which goes into effect Oct. 11.

Warren To Be Checked Closely by Committee

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP)—Earl Warren will be examined carefully before he gets a green light from the Senate Judiciary Committee as chief justice of the United States, Sen. Langer (R-ND) said yesterday.

He told newsmen he had received word from his Washington office that several objections have been filed against the former California governor's appointment, which must be confirmed by the Senate.

Langer said "each of them will be thoroughly investigated" by a special subcommittee of which he is chairman.

Six Miles of Paper Work Needed for Right of Way

They Knew What They Did

No kidnaping and murder atrocity since the Lindbergh case in 1932 has stirred public wrath like the Bobby Greenlease incident in Kansas City.

There is only one shred of solace for the millions who sympathize with the bereaved parents of the child and want to see justice done Two of the people who are going to be charged with the crime are in custody. There will be no Bruno Richard Hauptman to be arrested and tried under circumstances which will leave gnawing doubts. There will be no Gaston B. Means to be tried and sent to prison for preying on emotions stirred by the tragedy. The case is wrapped up. There are no loose ends.

The people who took Bobby Greenlease out of school and killed him in cold blood while collecting more than half a million dollars in ransom money from his family knew exactly what they were doing.

This was no crime of passion, no excursion into the oblivion of temporary insanity.

This was systematic murder. Fortunately, as one of the results of the Lindbergh kidnaping, there is a federal law which lets the FBI go to work on kidnapers. The FBI performed efficiently. Missouri has a death penalty. It is too good for the kind of people who would murder a helpless child for gain.

Employing the Handicapped

October has become the month of national "weeks." At the last count there were 16 observances scheduled this month and 5 in the current week, not including National Newspaper Week which started last Thursday and ends today.

One of the observances which is extremely worthy but which doesn't always draw the widespread attention of some of the others is National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week.

There are few activities which serve so well to renew our faith in human nature and to remind us again of the fair-mindedness of the American people as this program, now being honored in a national "week" for the eighth year.

Despite the spirit of cooperation which the program engenders, it is not a welfare activity On the contrary in its practical approach to the problem it seeks to focus the attention of employers on the employability of the qualified physically handicapped, gives the handicapped individuals an opportunity to prove their worth on the job, and presents the employer with a fresh source of workers he may previously have overlooked.

Not only in spite of their handicaps but frequently because of them, these persons often show, at certain operations, degrees of skill exceeding the standards for non-handicapped workers.

Those responsible for this excellent program, plus all the companies and individuals participating in it, deserve a hearty "well done."

Secretary Humphrey's Problem

It grows plainer by the day as federal money-handling is slowed down by methods of conservatism that the federal budget problem needs to be put on a new basis.

It cannot be comprehended by taxpayers unless the same practices are used by the government as are used by the taxpayers. Popular confidence in the finances of their government is at stake.

For instance, Treasury Secretary Humphrey is charged with responsibility for keeping the federal debt under an existing statutory limit of 275 billion dollars. That would mean, in ordinary budget practice, that he cannot pile up more than a 275-billion-dollar debt. Simple enough.

But that is not what it means in federal budget practice.

It means there that Secretary Humphrey must juggle public accounts to stay under an arbitrary figure set by Congress, which has made appropriations in excess of its debt limit.

The Wall Street Journal reports that one of the subterfuges being used to keep the left hand of Congress from knowing what its right hand has done is to delay "progress payments" on planes and other war material being made for the government.

Contractors are being forced to borrow from banks to meet their commitments. Debts which the government still owes will be paid later instead of earlier, perhaps with additional revenue from scheduled increases in old - age taxes after next Jan. 1 which will offset in some cases the scheduled decreases in income taxes.

The budget problem of meeting installments on household gadgets and automobiles is not in the same class with the budget problem of concealing the consequences of spending more than Congress is willing to collect from voters.

The latter should be reviewed and revised.

'Right-To-Work' Law

By David Lawrence

Alabama Governor Sets Example for True Liberals

What is the definition of a true 'liberal" and what is the acid test of liberalism in America today?

Gov. Persons of Alabama, in recent message to the Legislature gave an explanation of the civil rights of an individual which merits the designation of liberal in the best sense of the word.

For the Alabama governor defined the "right to work" and, by the bill he made into law, thwarted attempts to enslave the workers of Alabama.

This would have resulted from proposals to make the tenure of a worker's job dependent on what he thinks — a species of 'thought control" almost never condemned by the so-called "liberals."

It is strange that a document of such importance has not been published generally before this outside the state of Alabama, especially since many columns of news space have been given recently to a discussion of 19 proposed amendments to the Taft - Hartley Act, sponsored by Martin Durkin, one of which would have taken away from Alabama and all other states the right, by state law, to protect the individual against compulsory unionization.

The text of this historic message, which is about the best summary ever written against compulsory membership in a trade union as the condition of holding a job, is presented in full text here—the first time nationally published:

"I have given a great deal of thought to the 'Right - To - Work' bill (H.222) which passed the House by 67 to 24 and the Senate 23 to 9

"Mainly, this bill provides that no person shall be denied the privilege of working because he does not belong to a labor union and that no firm shall be forced to deduct union dues from the salary of the worker.

"Our labor union friends contend, and rightfully so, that unions have helped make possible better working conditions and higher wages. Because of this they feel that all employes in a unionized plant should be forced to join the union and that union dues be deducted from pay checks in what is known as the 'check-off' system. Union officials refer to those who do not desire to belong to the union as 'free riders' because such non-members obtain benefits of union, without helping pay for such benefits

"Along with this same line of reasoning is the fact that our churches are the greatest organizations in the world They have done much for all mankind Yet, no citizen is forced to belong to any church or required to pay church dues.

"Unquestionably the American Legion, the VFW and other service organizations have done much to provide benefits to the veterans. Yet it is not required of any veteran that he be forced to join any of the service organizations or required to pay dues to any of them.

"As a matter of fact, individual labor unions themselves have the right to say whether they belong to the AFL, the CIO or, in the case of others such as the railroad organizations and the UMW, to remain free and independent unions.

"The Alabama Farm Bureau Federation has done much for our farmers. Yet, no farmer is forced to be a member of the Farm Bureau or to pay dues to them unless he so desires.

"The Alabama Education Association is the organization which represents school teachers, and while the AEA has worked to provide for higher wages and safeguard working conditions for the teachers, those who do belong, do so of their own free will. They are not forced to join the AEA nor do they have dues deducted from their salary checks.

"The various business organizations, including those representing automobile dealers, grocery stores and drug stores in Alabama, have unquestionably been of much assistance to their members. Yet, no business firm or factory is forced to become a member of any organization.

"Many other such examples could be given. It may well be that workers in some of our Northern states do not object to being required to join the labor organization in their plant and have no feeling about being forced to have dues deducted from their pay checks

"However, in the South we have free, and independent workers. Many wish to join labor organizations and do so. Certainly that is their privilege. On the other hand, many do not like the idea of being forced to join any labor union as a condition to work. Neither are they agreeable to having union dues deducted from their salary checks.

"Those who first settled in our great country did to because they wanted to. It has always been a radition in America that any man could do as he pleased so long as he did not violate the laws of our land.

"In my opinion, all of our labor unions will be far stronger and the members in them will have a far greater interest and respect in the organizations if membership can be shown to be desirable and they are not forced to join.

"Because I believe in free labor and free enterprise, I am today signing the 'Right-To-Work' bill."

The Day Before Christmas

By TRUMAN TWILL

Some of us were wondering about an interesting possibility. Suppose almost everybody could be persuaded to start living some Monday morning as if it might be the last day of their lives — which it well might be.

What would happen" What would happen if each of us by some process of personal reasoning were to arrive at the conclusion that henceforth he would so conduct himself as if he were making the last impression on his contemporaries it ever would be his privilege to make.

This was not, incidentally, a discussion about religion, though religion has much to do with such a matter. Rather, it was a speculation about behaviorism — about the mass impact of a hypothetical point of view on large numbers of human beings.

The decision we reached reflected what we were optimistic about humanity. We decided without any misgivings at all that if almost everybody could be persuaded to think that way some Monday morning it would be the beginning of the most wonderful week of eternity.

There would be, of course, a few specimens who would decide to run amuck. But it was our considered opinion they would be too small a minority to matter. The vast majority would give them a friendly shove in the direction they wanted to go and not worry about them at all

Then the basic supposition in all this would be the possibility it might be the last day of our lives, it would not be assumed it actually was going to be the last day. That would be another matter.

But if people just decided en masse to start living some Monday morning as if they might never see another Monday, or maybe not even the following Tuesday — that this was going to be a farewell appearance — there would be a tremendous difference. Good sides would be coming to light all over the place.

The yearning that keeps the ordinary run of men from becoming sodden lumps would be released in kind words and deeds. Smiles would break out like sunshine after summer storms. No one would be disagreeable for the sake of being disagreeable Fear would vanish and so would provocation to be afraid.

All the horrible possibilities which make the palms sweat and the stomach churn and which almost never happen would be dismissed. Or as one member of the discussion group thought of it, everything would seem to be all right because there wouldn't be time for anything to seem all wrong on a one-day basis.

Ulcers would quit burning. There would be no teeth-grinding. No one would step on anyone's fingers on the way up the ladder or deliver a last savage kick in the teeth on the way down. It would be the best Monday anyone ever had, something like the day before Christmas.

On Tuesday, things wouldn't be quite so good, more like the day after Christmas. On Wednesday, there would be a rift in the lute. By Thursday, the back-biters would be busy . By the beginning of a long weekend, the psychiatrists and policemen would be back in business.

Brows would be beetled, teeth would be gnashed and adrenal glands would be squirting out their juices like so many water pistols. The world would be itself once more, ready for another blue Monday.

Hitting Hitler's Keg

Communist Peace Offensive Ended?

By Jay G. Hayden

The supreme question in all diplomatic chancelleries right now is why the Communist peace offensive, which blossomed so promisingly immediately following the death of Stalin, suddenly has gone into complete reverse.

Most annoyed of all by this development may be the statesmen abroad, especially Sir Winston Churchill and his Labor party opposite, Clement Attlee, and the Indian prime minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, who have been going on the theory that the Communist were waiting and anxious to settle everything if only the United States were willing.

In the weeks immediately following Stalin's death there were numerous signs that his successors were looking for a more friendly relationship with the outside world.

Foremost in that line was the reopening of Korean peace discussions, resulting in the truce in July.

Up to that event there were announcements nearly every day of some placatory gesture in Russia or among its satellites—release of a variety of Western Nationals, including the American, William N. Oatis; permission of Russian wives of foreigners to emigrate, lessening of friction in Berlin; easing of trade, passport and censorship restrictions were conspicuous illustrations.

Suddenly this Communist softening was halted. Some trace the change to the purge of Lavrenti Beria last July 7, and others to the popular uprisings in East Germany and Czechoslovakia about the same time. However, it was two weeks after those European events when the Korean peace was signed.

Far more important in influencing Communist action, in the opinion of most diplomats, was the overwhelming electoral triumph of Chancellor Adenauer of the West German Republic.

To the Kremlin that result served unmistakable notice that there could be no settlement of the German problem short of complete withdrawal of foreign occupation.

Further, it left no doubt that Western Germany soon will rearm, either as a member of the Western European Defense Alliance or strictly on her own.

The catastrophe for Russia in that development was by no means confined to Germany. If Germany is freed, continued foreign occupation of Austria certainly would become untenable. Recall of Russian soldiers from Austria would remove the excuse upon which Soviet troops are being kept in Hungary and Rumania.

Also, lifting of German occupation would end the present total Communist isolation of Poland and Czechoslovakia by giving them a wide border vis a vis free Germany.

These certainly are among the reasons why Russia last week sent 3,000 words, ostensibly in answer to a Western proposal of a four-power foreign ministers meeting at Lugan, Switzerland, October 15, without even so much as referring to that place or date.

The only way the German problem could be settled, the Russians said, was by negotiation between the present governments of West and East Germany—a course Chancellor Adenauer long ago rejected on the ground that the only real government of East Germany is its Russian master. As to Austria, the note said the issue should be restored to "normal diplomatic channels"—the status in which it is now stuck and has been for eight years.

Coincidentally the Chinese and North Koreans directly at Panmunjom and through their Russian spokesman in the United Nations, Andrei Vishinsky, appear to be doing their level best to stall off the Korean peace conference, called for not later than October 28 Every day the impression grows stronger that it will be long after that prescribed date before the conference assembles and it is quite possible even that it will never meet at all

The Chinese are holding out for admission of Asiatic nonparticipants in the Korean war—India, Burma and Indonesia — to the peace table, while Russia last week threw in the suggestion that points of conflict, east and west, could be settled only by a meeting of a Big Five, including Communist China along with the U.S., Britain, France and Russia

As with Russia in Europe, it could be that the Peiping government is obstructing the Korea peace negotiation because they can't see how they can hope to win it.

The course to be pursued by the unanimous United Nations representation in the meeting already has been made clear. They will propose simply that all foreign troops get out of Korea, leaving the citizens of that country, North and South, to determine their own future in a free election

Since the population of South Korea is several times greater than in North Korea, the Communists can be in no doubt as to who would win in such voting

French suggestion of an Indochina peace conference meanwhile remains wholly unanswered, with the seeming implication that in that country, as in Korea, Germany and Austria, the Communists don't dare let the native population decide

Some Airy Plane Talk

By MARK DANA

According to F B Lee, administrator of Civil Aeronautics of the U. S. Department of Commerce, the almost jet-speed increase in air traffic warrants consideration by most small towns of adequate airport facilities geared to the next half-dozen years.

He does not come out and say that every small city or town should have an airport, particularly if there are few planes privately owned in the area He uses the term "consider," and of course officials of most cities and towns in the country have given thought to that idea.

Mr. Lee told the U. S. Conference of Mayors the other day that there will be 40 million airline passengers in 1960, just seven tax payments ahead, almost double the number of passengers last year. His Civil Aeronautics Administration keeps distributing enticing booklets to all-askers about airports, and apparently will be quite sad until air fields are practically as common as motels.

Experts who talk airplane language remind that in the U. S. there are 22 communities, called large hubs, which accounted last year for 65 per cent of air passenger travel, and 39 small-hub towns which sent up 20 per cent of the passengers, and 93 small hubs where some 10 per cent of air passengers got on board.

There are national, state, municipal, joint-city, private, cooperative and other sorts of airfields, and it cost like the mischief to transform a sizeable cow pasture into an aerial port and operate it

Railroads provide their own stations, and steamship lines their own docks, but airlines are a bit tardy in building airfields in the undeveloped hustings. Also at the moment, we face possible requirements of jet planes which need runways stretching from hither to yon, and helicopters which can land in a spinster's backyard, and Mr. Lee surely knows that perplexity.

However, he came out, in talking to the mayors, with the assurance that "a city's economic future depends to a considerable degree on its ability to furnish airport facilities to handle air traffic safely and efficiently." According to that assertion a lot of nice places are going to be ghost towns Deadwood Gulch style some future day.

Daily Bible Thought

Who shall lay anthing to the charge of Gods elect?—Rom. 8 33 Fellow mortals misjudge us, They attribute wrong motives to us If we bear the brand of God's elect we may ignore the suspicions and misjudgments of mortal men. Time will reveal the truth.

Words of the Wise

Our gifts and attainments are not only to be light and warmth in our own dwellings, but are to shine through the window, into the dark night, to guide and cheer bewildered travelers on the road. —Henry Ward Beecher

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Business and the Series

(The scene is a radio-equipped business office during a crucial world series game.)

Boss—Miss Willetts, will you take a letter Who's up?

Stenog—Keep it low and outside!

Boss—I beg your pardon That makes it two and three. Are you ready? Mitchell, Finchley & Persimmon, Lansing, Michigan.

Stenog—Finchley, Camanella & Woodling, Ebbets, Michigan. Dear Base on Balls.

Boss—In reply to yours of the 31st between second and third I beg to state that the bum can't get it over and . . .

Stenog—I'd better read this back to you from the bullpen Mitchell, Robinson and Slowball, right down the middle, Ohio. In reply to your hit and run, I am glad to say that it's a foul into the stands and . .

A Secretary—You're wanted on the phone, with the infield close in.

Boss—Hello. Who's on first . . beg pardon. . . who's talking"

Voice on Phone—This is Furillo with one down Who's calling"

Boss (hanging up)—Listen, if any more calls come through say I'm out. . . That makes two out . . Where were we"

Office boy—Did you call, sir"

Boss—No. If I want you I'll bunt. . . Miss Willetts, start warming up. . . What was I saying?

Stenog—You were saying your letter of the 31st received and placed on third base. Period, new paragraph, new pitcher. . . What happened?

A Customer—Could I get a little attention here or is the squeeze on?

Boss—If I want you in the lineup I'll signal. What's the score and if so I ain't in.

Customer—I'll call some other time when I'm hitting better.

Stenog—I got as far as yours of the 31st received, Mr. Poodle Go ahead. Nobody walks!

Boss—Yours of the 31st received and we can quote you a price of two dollars per single or three-fifty for a two-bagger semicolon if you order by the gross I am happy to say the umpire is cockeyed Very truly yours.

Stenog—Do you wish to sign it now or wait for the next hitter?

Boss—I dunno. Who am I?

Stenog—You're either Jackie Robinson or Brooklyn Bridge.

Boss—Sign it called on account of darkness. We can't afford a mistake in a matter of this importance.

Office Boy—Slide ya creep!

We have arrived at a positive conclusion after ten days of daylight saving The summers were longer under the Democrats. . . Do you suppose Sen McCarthy signed his love letters to Jean Kerr "Love and QUIZZES"?

Adlai Stevenson spent a weekend with Clet Bowles at Essex, on the Connecticut River, up in the witch hazel belt, and we'll bet he saw few more charming spots on his whole world tour.

2 Best Corn Picker Operators Chosen

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's first statewide mechanical corn-picking contest was viewed by an estimated 50,000 persons attending radio station WRFD's Ohio Corn Festival south of here yesterday.

Leroy E. Sexten Jr., Rt. 1, Grove City, won the championship on the one-row division, scoring 91.60 points out of a possible 100. He is the operator of a 142-acre farm in Franklin County.

In the two-row division, Homer J. Conway, Rt. 3, Marengo, won by the flip of a coin. Conway tied with Donald Foor, of Pataskala, Licking County, at 82.88 points.

The two champions said they will enter the national competition Oct. 24 at Bloomington, Ill.

Erie Section Gang Foreman Honored For Fast Thinking

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Erie Railroad's "New York Flyer" stopped in the village of Aurora last night for the first time.

The private car of the road's president was part of the train.

Waiting on the platform, all dressed up for a trip, were Vic Ochuinzzi, 56, an Erie section gang foreman at Aurora, his wife and their four children. They were going to New York in the private car.

That was the railroad's way of thanking Vic for something he did last spring.

There had been a collision of two steel trucks at an Aurora crossing, and both tracks were blocked. Vic knew a train was due from each direction shortly. He hustled to a switch and stopped one train, then made a telephone call to have the other stopped.

There was an added touch in last night's departure which came as a surprise to the whole family.

Arurorans who commute the 5 miles daily on an Erie local didn't ride the local last night. Gatemen at the Cleveland Terminal shunted them over to the flyer. And when the flyer stopped in Aurora to pick up the Occhuinzzi family, they all gathered around the platform and gave a rousing cheer.

EXHIBITS CHAMP STEER

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ivan Zorn, 18, Jackson Center, exhibited the grand champion steer of the Columbus junior livestock show yesterday — a medium weight angus. Danny Purdin, 20, Rt. 1, Johnstown, showed the reserve pen champinon, another Aberdeen Angus. William Hughes, 21, Huntsville, won the showmanship award and William Hogue Jr., Licking County, was reserve showman. Paul W. Teegardin Jr., Ashville, the shorthorn blue ribbon. Katy Cromley, also of Pickaway County, won the junior showmanship award.

Missionaries Here For Bible Meeting

Motto of the tenth annual Missionary and Bible Conference being conducted at the Emmanuel Baptist Church is "The Entrance of Thy Words Giveth Light." Services are each night in charge of the pastor, Rev. C. E. Hershey.

In addition to the missionaries who were present to begin the conference, several others have arrived. Rev. Charles R. Frame of the Sudan Interior Mission in Nigeria, Rev. Soldier's Attorney Tells Jury Ohioan Shot by Accident

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Counsel for a young Dorchester, Mass., soldier said yesterday he would prove his client shot and killed an Ohio official by accident.

Harold St. John, 26, went on trial for the second degree murder of Joseph W. Harding, assistant state industrial relations director and former Cuyahoga Falls mayor

His lawyer, Charles S. Leasure, said the shooting took place when the two men struggled for a gun outside a motel near Zanesville last August.

State Highway Patrol Cpl. Clyde E Wells, who arrested St John a few hours after the slaying, said St John was wounded in the knee at the time.

Wells said St. John told him Harding wounded him

The patrolman said he asked St John "Why did you do what you did?" The soldier replied "I wanted him to drive me to Pittsburgh," Wells said.

Leasure said his client, AWOL from a Camp Atterbury, Ind., stockade, thumbed a ride with Harding from Columbus and Harding wrested his gun from him.

He told St. John he would kill him, Leasure said.

"Krenzler will direct the operations of this investigation and will work together with a state committee which will be appointed shortly," O'Neill said in a prepared statement.

Reports of the investigation will be submitted to the Legislature with recommendations for changes in state narcotics laws deemed necessary for tighter control, O'Neill said.

'Would Stimulate Business'

5-Point Corporate Tax Cut Proposed by Millikin

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Millikin (R-Colo) said today he thinks a five-point reduction in corporation taxes should go into effect on schedule next April 1 as a stimulant to business.

Millikin, who heads the tax-handling Senate Finance Committee, thus served notice on administration leaders that he is not now ready to go along fully with the tax program laid down last May by President Eisenhower.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey said in New York Monday that the administration's request for continuation of a maximum of 52 per cent taxation on corporation incomes still stands, as does its request for continuation of present excise levies.

Under present law, the top tax on corporation incomes will drop on April 1 from 52 to 47 per cent. This is separate from the tax on corporation profits in excess of specified averages defined by law. The excess profits tax is due to end Dec. 31, the same date a 10 per cent cut in individual income taxes is scheduled. Also on April 1, excise sales taxes are due to drop to pre-Korean levels.

Eisenhower last May asked Congress to postpone indefinitely the scheduled drops in corporation income and excise taxes. It took no action this year.

Millikin said in an interview he wants "all tax reductions to come into effect when they are scheduled to come into effect." If they are allowed to do so, the Treasury estimates that it will take in about seven billion dollars less in the 1954 calendar year than this year.

Millikan said he expects a general tax revision program which the administration has promised to put before Congress to include some proposed changes in excise levies.

Millikin said he believes spending cuts can be made which will promise early balancing of the federal budget.

"Barring unforeseen intensification of international affairs, we will come in sight of a balanced budget by the next fiscal year,' he said. "We can balance the budget by not spending so much money."

Eisenhower Is Criticized by U.S. Publisher

Knight Hits Visit by President's Brother to Peron at Ike's Request

MEXICO CITY (AP)—U S. Publisher John S. Knight, outgoing president of the Inter-American Press Assn., criticized President Eisenhower today for sending his brother Milton to call on Argentine President Juan Peron last July during his tour of South America.

Knight, publisher of the Chicago Daily News, Miami Herald, Detroit Free Press and Akron Beacon-Journal, told the association he himself had turned down an invitation to visit Argentina and call on Peron because he wouldn't be a party to such "face-saving gestures" by the Argentine leader.

Knight was reporting to the association's annual convention on the state of freedom of the press in the Americas. He said in that cause "victories have been few in comparison with our defeats."

After citing Ecuador, Nicaragua, Cuba, Colombia and Argentina for repressing their newspapers, Knight said as head of the IAPA he had turned down an invitation to accompany a group of American editors to Argentina—and to call on Peron—until the Buenos Aires newspaper La Prensa was restored to the Paz family, from whom Peron's regime seized it.

"I said also," he continued, "that I would not be a party to any face-saving gestures on President Peron's part nor help supply the propaganda value he could extract from having a group of U.S. editors call upon him in Buenos Aires.

"Because of this stand, the proposed visit was called off. It is unfortunate that the U.S. government did not adopt a similar attitude instead of sending Dr. Milton Eisenhower, the President's brother, to the Argentine."

Galion Senior Elected Queen Of Mardi Gras

Special to The Star

GALION—A Galion High School senior, Miss Betty Columbus, 18, was chosen this week by the student body to reign as queen of Galion's Mardi Gras-Ohio Sesquicentennial parade. This will be an event of Thursday night, Oct. 29.

Ohio Sesquicentennial Queen Janet Bailey of Akron has been invited to attend the Galion celebration. Ohio's Governor Frank J. Lausche has accepted an invitation to participate in activities and will have a place of honor in the parade, and on the reviewing stand.

Election of Miss Columbus took place Tuesday, at Senior High school, and she received the highest vote by the student body. Each class presented a list of nominees and these names were placed on the ballot for the entire high school. In the vote the two seniors with second highest votes, Carol Derfler and Sandra Robinson, will be attendants to the queen. Junior attendants elected are Nola Belle Althouse and Linda Nichols, and sophomore attendants are Beverly Boutwell and Paula Moyer.

The queen, Miss Columbus, is the daughter of Mrs. John Martinez. In her sophomore year, she was chosen as the queen's attendant for the football homecoming. Last year she was cast in the junior class play. This year she has been chosen treasurer of her home room, and is parliamentarian for the Future Homemakers of America. She was one of nine nominees selected by the senior class for queen on the all-high school ballot, Tuesday.

Registration of parade units and floats are to be made as soon as possible with John M. Fingar at the Woolworth store. A report of historical items should be given to the Chamber of Commerce.

80 Bank Employes Used To Count Out $600,000 Ransom

KANSAS CITY (AP) — It took 80 bank employes several hours to count out and package the 10 and 20 dollar bills that made up the $600,000 paid as ransom in the Bobby Greenlease kidnaping case.

Arthur Eisenhower, brother of President Eisenhower and executive vice-president of the Commerce Trust Co. here, said FBI agents stood by and watched during the counting.

"We tried to arrange the counting work in such a way that no employe would know the full total," Eisenhower said.

After the packaging three representatives of the Greenlease family came to the bank for the money. The money weighed 85 pounds.

Pickens Manslaughter Trial Scheduled Oct. 22

Manslaughter trial of Willie Pickens, scheduled to start Tuesday in Marion County Common Pleas Court has been postponed until Oct. 22 by agreement of attorneys.

Pickens, 22, of 505 Jefferson St., was the driver of one of two cars involved in a fatal traffic crash on Route 30-S near Caledonia on July 19 which resulted in the immediate deaths of two men and a third man on Aug. 18.

Killed instantly were H. W. Crissinger, 71, of 131 Dix Ave., and Harry Mathias, 56, of 278½ E Church St. Harold B. Harper, 49, of 461 Davids St., died later of injuries.

Pickens has been in the Marion County jail since the accident. He has been indicted by the grand jury on the deaths of Crissinger and Mathias.

Mr and Mrs J. J. Doyle of Staten Island, N. Y., both bowled 300 games on March 31, 1942.

Harding High Students Pick Class Officers

Bibler, Rinnert, Coy Elected; Sophomore Vote Takes 2 Ballots

The colorful pageantry of another Harding High School election is over.

Following the political rally at the school auditorium yesterday morning, in which class officer candidates were presented, balloting showed the following Harding students would head their classes for the 1953-54 year:

Senior—Doug Bibler, president; Allen Green, vice president; Sheila Williams, secretary; Jim Popoff, treasurer.

Sophomores divided their 398 ballots evenly between candidates Larry Coy and Joe Merchant for their class president, and a second balloting this morning in sophomore home rooms resulted in the election of Larry Coy for that office. Other sophomore officers are: Ernie Adams, vice president; Rena Rech, secretary; and Mary Larsen, treasurer.

The election yesterday was preceded by the primary election last week. Campaign schemes involved the use of tags, paper neckties and posters, which had been placed throughout the school. At the political rally, the candidates were introduced by class officer groups, and would-be class presidents were introduced by their campaign managers. Presidency candidates were the only "politicians" who gave campaign speeches at the rally.

caller told the family to send a representative to Pittsburg, Kan., and await instructions on the return of Bobby.

Ledterman said he and another business associate, Norbert O'Neil, stayed in Pittsburg two days but finally gave up hope of a contact and returned to Kansas City.

It was a "weighty decision," Ledterman said of the negotiations and "we lost."

$293,992 Recovered

Police recovered $293,992 of the $600,000 when they arrested Hall in St. Louis. Hall said he thought he got drunk and lost another suitcase filled with money.

Mrs. Heady was picked up in a St. Louis apartment the couple was sharing. The arrests came after a tip from an alert taxicab driver who told a police lieutenant about a man "loaded with money and carrying a pistol."

Hall, a chunky, balding man, broke down under questioning and implicated Mrs. Heady, a childless divorcee.

"My God, I didn't plan to harm the child!" Hall said. "I would never have done a thing like that."

He blamed Marsh, saying he turned the child over to him and later found the boy dead with a pistol beside the body in the basement of Mrs. Heady's St. Joseph, Mo., home.

Police dug up the body in the yard of the home.

Mrs. Heady said she took Bobby from the French Institute of Notre Dame de Sion here and turned him over to Hall but didn't realize she was taking part in a kidnaping.

"He was such a sweet child," she said. "He came so nice."

Hall admitted the boy was dead even before a ransom note was sent to the 71-year-old Greenlease and his wife.

Planned for 2 Years

Hall, son of a widely respected Pleasant, Kansas lawyer, told officers he had planned the kidnaping for two years. When his father, John Hall, died the son received $200,000 inheritance. In four years it was gone.

Both Hall and Mrs Heady have police records.

Mrs. Heady denied any connection with the slaying and expressed surprise when told the boy had been dug up in her yard. Hall had met her in a St. Joseph tavern several months ago.

He said he told her Bobby was his son, in custody of a former wife.

A 22-year-old woman was being held as a material witness. Sandra June O'Day, 22, St. Louis, was arrested here after Hall told officers he had been with her Monday night.

Sheriff, Deputy Attend Meeting of Association

Marion County Sheriff Glenn Obenour and Deputy Sheriff Robert Lautenslager attended a northwest district meeting of the Buckeye State Sheriffs Association held in Defiance Wednesday night.

Discussion centered around the recent ruling of the State Industrial Commission holding county sheriffs responsible for liability in the death of special deputies. This ruling caused sheriffs to cancel the commissions of some 10,000 special deputies in the state.

A ruling on an appeal of the case is expected from the Industrial Commission after Oct. 12.

New Ohio Pythian Sisters Chief Honored at Reception in Morral

Approximately 350 Pythian Sisters, Knights of Pythias, and friends attended a recent reception for Mrs. Marietta Heller of Morral, newly-installed grand chief of Ohio.

Installed as grand chief of the Pythian Sisters at the annual convention of both groups in Cleveland Sept. 19, Mrs. Heller and all of the other newly installed grand temple officers of Ohio formed a receiving line and welcomed guests as they entered the Morral school auditorium, which was decorated in a garden party theme.

Mrs. Heller was escorted to her seat of honor by Mrs. Helen Mulholland and Mrs. Virginia Graham, after which she introduced her husband, Maurice, and two sons, Buddy and Gary, and her official officers and deputies. George Thompson, newly installed grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Ohio, introduced his officers for the new year. Temples from the local district and from throughout the state were represented at the reception.

The program, which carried a "This Is Your District" theme, consisted of a number by each temple of the eighth district. It included temples from Morral, LaRue, Green Camp, Delaware, Prospect, Marion, Essex, Bellepoint, Caledonia, Waldo and Kilbourne.

Mrs. Heller was presented a gift from each temple. Mrs. Blanche Lill, hostess for the evening, presented gifts from Morral Temple No. 429 to Mrs. Heller and Mrs. Ruthella Snyder, district deputy grand chief of district eight, who is also a member of the Morral chapter. The registration book of the guests was also presented to Mrs. Heller.

Mrs. Mildred Burley, chief of the Morral chapter, was assisted by various committees in planning the reception. Mrs. Annabelle Healea of Marion was general chairman. Mrs. Helen Granlee and Mrs. Lill were in charge of registration. Mrs. Maxine Roberts, Mrs. Healea, and Mrs. Beulah McWherter were in charge of decoration. Mrs. Mulholland, Mrs. Florence Weston, Mrs. Virginia Graham and Mrs. Betty Washburn were in charge of the program. Mrs. Marie Hooper, Mrs Lillian Washburn, Mrs. Kathryn Barber, Mrs. Lona Baker, Mrs. Lucille Barber and Mrs. Donna Ruth Sheaffer were in charge of refreshments.

Dancing closed the evening's entertainment. It was announced that the district eight convention would be held Oct. 17 at Morral High School with the Morral temple as hostess.

France Limits U.S. Troops at Morocco Base

Officials Say 7,500 Was Agreed Upon; Army Requests More

PARIS (AP)—France is letting only 7,500 Americans enter Morocco to man the huge U. S. Air Force [illegible] and American officers bases there, and American officers said today that number soon won't be enough to do the job.

Three of the jet bomber and fighter bases will be finished in the near future—at a cost of nearly 300 million dollars. U. S. officers say they will need a marked increase in troops, perhaps nearly double the 7,500 now allowed under present U. S. agreements with France. Two more bases are still to be built.

French officials say the limit on troops was agreed to in the first contract authorizing the United States to build bomber bases. This limit will be continued, one authoritative spokesman said, until a "status of forces" agreement can be worked out covering the operation and administration of the bases and control of the military forces there.

The spokesman said France will allow no more men on the bases until a more workable agreement has been reached. That now is being negotiated, but the differences have continued for two years.

American officials in Paris indicated the negotiations were going on acceptably well. A "status of forces" agreement covers such things as which nation's courts try soldier offenders, hiring and firing of civilian personnel and transportation.

'Not Enough Personnel'

American Air Force oficers said the present ceiling will let into Morocco only enough U. S. officers, airmen and civilians to operate two bases and the 5th Air Division headquarters in Rabat.

American civilian officials in Morocco said the limitation stems from French fears of increasing American influence in the country and a French belief that Americans are interfering in local politics.

"Frenchmen here actually think we want to take over this colony," said one U.S. government official in Morocco.

A French official agreed there was considerable antagonism toward Americans among the French in Morocco. He said it started when Moroccan leaders interpreted comments by President Roosevelt as assurance that the United States would help them get independence from France. Morocco is one of France's tenderest spots.

French officials claim the 7,500 men are enough at present to run the bases; that more Frenchmen and Arabs should do more of the work now done by GIs; that too many highly paid American troops will upset the country's economy worse than ever.

working on that, to see in what form such assurances might be given."

Eden remarked that some persons think a four-power meeting "at the highest level is "some magic formula which only the Americans prevent us from enjoying.

Such a view, he asserted, "is, of course, the greatest nonsense."

Eden referred any persons holding such views to the last Soviet reply to the West's three-power note which he said showed "no eagerness for a meeting at any level."

U.S. To Defend Indian Troops From Koreans

Obligated To Join U.N. Forces Should POW Trouble Start

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—U. S. and other U. N. troops will defend Indian guards and other [illegible] members of the Neutral Repatriation Commission in Korea if South Korea unleashes troops against the neutrals, a U. S. spokesman emphasized today.

The Korean armistice agreement signed by both the U. N. Allies and the Communists, guarantees that, an American delegation source stressed.

He pointed to the agreement's provision that the commanders of both sides "shall afford full protection and all possible assistance and cooperation to the Military Armistice Commission, its joint observer teams, the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission, and its neutral nations inspection teams."

Assurances that the United States would live up to the agreement signed by Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr. for the U. N. Command last July 27 were understood to have been repeated to Indian and other delegates here since the Indians in the field have protested South Korean threats to attack their guards and to free prisoners awaiting repatriation questioning.

A delegation spokesman denied, however, that Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief American delegate, had discussed such specific assurances with Assembly President Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, sister of India's Prime Minister Nehru. A spokesman for Mrs. Pandit made a similar denial.

Lodge had "no comment" to questions about Nehru's cabled protests to President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Churchill about the South Korean threats. Nehru said the threats might cause the Korean war to flame again.

American sources said South Korean President Syngman Rhee was not a satellite to be curbed on what he could or could not say or do.

United Appeals Campaign Facts

Q. Do United Appeals organizations give relief?

A. Since giving relief is, by law, primarily a responsibility of city and county governments, organizations participating in United Appeals stress prevention and services. All know of the Red Cross disaster relief program which is geared and poised to swing into action before disaster strikes. Agencies like the Red Cross, Family Service Society, Salvation Army help people solve all types of personal problems so that they can continue to be self-respecting and self-supporting members of our community. Youth services like the YMCA and Boy and Girl Scouts look to our community's future by building character in today's youth so that they may have a running start in life and not become the public charges of tomorrow.

United Appeals Division Set For Campaign

Industrial Employes Group Briefed on Job By Leaders of Drive

The Industrial Employes Division of the Marion County United Appeals campaign, representing more than 60 industrial firms in Marion County was briefed on its job in the 1953-54 fund drive at a meeting Wednesday in the community room of the West Town Branch Bank. More than 40 men and women attended the "dutch" luncheon.

The campaign will get under way with a kick-off breakfast Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock in the new YMCA.

The division, headed by Robert Fay, vice chairman, has a quota of $40,000. Fay and his co-chairmen will conduct the sales campaign among the more than 8,000 industrial workers in the county.

Harmon Presides

Charles D Harmon, chairman of the Industrial Employes Division, presided for the meeting. Support of the campaign to finance the agencies comprising United Appeals was designated as a civic responsibility of every citizen in the county by J. B. Bray, president of United Appeals. The goal, he said, is not too high for the work being done by the agencies, and as citizens we have a duty to support and take an interest in their programs. Success, he added, depends on the effort put forth by the workers and the cooperation of the citizens in their contributions.

Brief talks were given by J. D. Torrance, director of solicitor training, William Cowles, chairman of the speakers bureau and Fred Hanover, executive secretary of the Community Foundation.

The campaign will be carried on in the residential district by a division made up of women. Vice chairman is Mrs. W. A. Dennis, Mrs. Richard Morgan heads the residential group, and Mrs. Merle Hamilton the clubs and organizations.

Salesmen Get Supplies

Salesmen in this group received their supplies and were briefed on their campaign program at a meeting attended by more than 100 women Tuesday night in the YMCA. After the work packets were distributed and read there was a question and answer period conducted by J. D. Torrance. The residential quota is $9,991 and clubs and organizations $1,500.

In keeping with the United Appeals policy of advancing co-chairmen to vice chairmen the succeeding year, Mrs. Morgan will head the group in the 1954-55 campaign.

The public employes division headed by Ray Reidenbaugh completed its organization and received work packets Wednesday. The goal for this division is $3,100.

THE EMERGENCY Hospitalization Fund is administered by the local Kings' Daughters and is a participating agency of the Marion Community Foundation. It is to this organization persons may turn when emergencies strike and the family budget is low.

It is set up to pay medical bills such as emergency operations and treatment needed as a result of an accident and in instances where the person needing medical attention can not immediately pay the cost of medical service and can turn to no other welfare or relief agency.

Mrs W E Miley is president of the King's Daughters. A fund of $500 is set up for this service.

SUPPORT OF USO, helps preserve the vital tie between the serviceman and the normal civilian life he hopes to return to and gives the folks at home a chance to show that they really care.

New units are needed in the United States and also overseas.

USO centers provide a "home away from home" for millions of American servicemen and women, including many from this community.

As a link between the absent servicemen and the folks back home, USO has become an integral part of the nation's social structure. This year the county's USO budget is $3,500.

Some Secret Weapons Seen

Army's New Equipment Is Displayed at Aberdeen

ABERDEEN, Md. (AP)—The Army took the wraps off some of its hitherto secret equipment today in a display at the Aberdeen Proving Ground, but a number of atomic age guns and gadgets were conspicuously absent.

Security Lid Still on

Ordnance items on view ranged from the latest in protective body armor to the new 280 mm. atomic cannon, set up to fire a conventional shell.

But, abiding by the terms of an order issued last spring by Secretary of Defense Wilson, the Army made no effort to display such items as the new Nike antiaircraft guided missile, the "Ontos" carrier for antiaircraft weapons or the new T43 heavy tank. The Wilson order prohibited for reasons of security and economy any "public demonstrations of important new weapons and equipment."

The 280 mm cannon which fired its first atomic round in Nevada last spring was out in the clear for public demonstration.

The Army, which has emphasized the mobility of the huge, 85-ton gun, scheduled bridge crossings today to prove that it can be moved virtually anywhere in a battle zone.

Also unaffected by the order was the 75 mm. "Skysweeper" antiaircraft gun, with radar controls to detect and "lock onto" approaching enemy planes.

Viewed for First Time

Unveiled for the first time were a 58-ton tank retriever capable of hauling the Army's heaviest vehicles off the battlefield under fire, a 15-ton tractor which can travel 50 miles an hour and has a towing capacity of 75 tons; and a new twin 40 mm. gun mounted on the chassis of the Walker Bulldog tank.

Most of the other new weapons had been displayed before including the atomic cannon, which took part in President Eisenhower's inaugural parade.

The show was put on for the American Ordnance Assn.—made up of civilian manufacturers, engineers and others who produce arms—and for top military brass and newsmen.

The tank retriever unveiled for the first time, the T51, is powered by a 1,000-horsepower, supercharged, aircooled Continental engine. The Army says it can tow three 48-ton medium tanks at the same time or the new 80-ton atomic cannon over any type of terrain.

Special Purpose Vehicle

Designed at the Detroit Arsenal, it is the first vehicle developed solely for dragging disabled tanks off battlefields while under fire. Converted tanks were previously used for the job, and Army officials say if the T51 had been available for World War II or the Korean War hundreds of tanks and American lives would have been saved.

Chrysler Corp. is reported negotiating for a contract of about 75 million dollars to build T51s. It is expected to be in production by next June.

The T51 carries a crew of five. Equipped with a long crane and a power winch, it can lumber onto a battlefield and lift as much as 30 tons clear of the ground. Much heavier weight can be towed, including the 60-ton T43 tank, the Army's largest. It is armed with a 50-caliber machine gun.

SOME 30 WOMEN ARE employed in the cafeteria systems throughout the city to handle the preparation and serving of food. All of the women are required to have a training period in the lunchroom to learn preparation and procedure.

During September, lunches were served at the three school cafeterias to approximately 1,461 students and faculty members each day. The average lunch at any of the cafeterias consists of a half pint of milk, either meat, fish, poultry, cheese, egg, or other protein foods, vegetables, fruit, bread or muffin, butter or margarine.

GRADE SCHOOL CAFETERIA programs will be essentially the same as the junior and senior high plans, Miss Hutchins said. Main difference at the elementary schools will be the method of serving the food. For the upper grades, students pick up trays, silverware and food as they file through the cafeteria line. The elementary school pupil will use plastic plates with special sections for cups. Silverware and napkins will have been placed on the tables.

Students at both junior and senior high schools eat during three different periods. 11 45 12 10 and 12.35, while it is expected that a two-period schedule will be worked out in the grade schools.

Junior Steer Show And Sale To Begin Friday Afternoon

Friday at 1 p m. is the starting time of the sixth annual Junior Steer Show and Sale to be held at the Producers Livestock Cooperative stockyards, located at the end of W. Center St.

Following selection of the champions, a showmanship contest will be conducted. The winner of this contest, as well as the owners of the grand and reserve champion steers, will be awarded trophies donated by area merchants.

The final count of animals entered in the sale is 109, the largest number of entries in the history of the show and sale. The previous high was 78 last year. Members of 4-H and FFA groups from Marion, Delaware, Knox, Morrow, Crawford, Wyandot, and Hardin Counties have entered the event.

At 7:30 p m. the animals will be sold at public auction.

tory explanation center has delayed the start of persuasion attempts since Sept 26, and apparently is the only remaining obstacle.

Meanwhile, another Indian letter rejected the Allied charge that the commission was operating on the theory that most of the prisoners "actually desire repatriation."

The Indian chairman of the five-nation commission, Lt. Gen. K S. Thimayya, said the commission "made no such assumption."

Red Charge Also Rejected

Thimayya also rejected a Communist charge that the captives have not been allowed "to express their free will."

Thimayya said, in a letter replying to one from the former U. N. commander, Gen. Mark Clark, that the commission had kept an "open mind" and is determined to gain for the prisoners "complete freedom of choice without duress or coercion."

He also noted that the 117 captives who have already changed their minds indicate that not all of the 22,600 Red POWs want to refuse repatriation.

He said none of the prisoners in the camp "dared openly" to ask for repatriation for fear of reprisals from other captives.

An Allied spokesman said there would be no immediate comment from the UNC on either of the Indian letters.

Escapee From State Hospital Caught Here

A 60 mile-per-hour automobile chase through the west end of town led to the apprehension by city police of a Marion escapee from the Columbus State Hospital at 12.58 this morning.

The chase ended at Campbell Rd. and the Green Camp pike.

The man, who escaped from the State Hospital about four months ago, was driving a car he had recently purchased.

Police were on the alert for him after receiving a report from Mansfield police that he had escaped from their custody Wednesday afternoon.

Struggling when picked up, he struck Patrolman Floyd M. Wilson.

The escapee is now being held in the county jail waiting disposition.

Big Issue in Washington

Defense Against Atomic Attack Tough Question

By CHARLES BARRETT
(For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON (AP) — For weeks the big question in official Washington has been what to do about defense against Russian atomic bombs, both conventional and hydrogen.

The answer holds the key to taxes, the budget, the national economy, possibly even life itself.

Now, amid much speculation, defense officials apparently have reached their fateful decision.

Secretary of Defense Wilson, who next to President Eisenhower is most directly responsible, and presumably the best informed, told a news conference about it Tuesday.

He said the administration plans no new all-out, multibillion-dollar air defense system from the frozen arctic to home soil, as some have proposed.

Instead, he outlined a buildup in continental air defenses costing something like an additional 500 million dollars next year

Why? Are we leaving our homes and factories inadequately guarded against a frightfully real and present danger?

No, Wilson says.

He said he doesn't think Russia will have the bombs and planes to launch sustained atomic warfare for about three more years. The United States now is three years ahead of Russia, he said.

In short, he said he doesn't think Rusia will start a war when all the evidence shows she would lose.

But if war should come, would any amount of effort and expenditure really guarantee an invulnerable defense"

No, many defense officials say.

Their theory is that the hydrogen bomb potentially is so destructive, so terrible, there is no defense—except peace.

The defense system mapped out by some scientists calls for tiers of radar warning networks, guided missiles and interceptor fighter planes, to subject any enemy bombers to constant attacks for hundreds of miles before they even reach the United States.

Estimates of the cost range from 30 to more than 90 billion dollars, over a period of years.

Some scientists believe a maximum system could knock out 85 to 95 per cent of invading planes.

Here are some of the factors military officials have weighed against this approach:

1. Many of the proposed devices and weapons are not perfected yet, or have not been tested. Some military officials voice doubts about claims of an 85 to 95 per cent knockout of a raiding force.

2 But even if only 5 to 15 per cent of invaders get through, the devastation could be appalling. If they hit key spots, they might be enough to cripple any sustained U. S. war effort.

3. And even if the United States were relatively impregnable, what about the rest of the free world? Certainly Western Europe, Asia, Africa and South America cannot build such systems. The United States does not want to be left alone, surrounded by an aerial Maginot Line.

4. The system would be designed for defense against existing or foreseeable jet bombers. But by the time the system was completed, these bombers might be obsolete, and a greater threat then might be from huge guided missiles, submarines or other weapons.

5 The tremendous economic effort required for such a relatively stationary defense system would drain away funds from U. S. retaliatory striking power and development of new offensive weapons. And it would threaten vast deficits, rapid inflation and economic controls.

On the other side, supporters of an all-out continental defense say no effort, no expense is too great to provide all the protection available. As vast as the program seems, they argue, the danger is so great and so frightful the nation can do nothing less.

Thus the administration decision still could be upset by Congress.

Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate - House Atomic Energy Committee, has said if the people knew what he knows, they would forget about balancing the budget and lower taxes and would be willing to pay 10 billion dollars more a year to improve air defense.

Mayor Urges Fire Prevention Be Made a Year-Round Affair

Mayor Harold F. Robinson today issued a final appeal to all citizens to join in the observance of Fire Prevention Week, which ends Saturday. He called on the citizens of Marion to make Fire Prevention a year-round habit, and not confine it to a single week each twelve months.

The mayor's statement said:

"It has been gratifying to me to note the keen interest and the extensive preparations evidenced in making this event one of outstanding accomplishment in eliminating fire hazards in Marion.

"Our veterans, for whom everybody is striving to provide homes, apartments, and living accommodations, cannot afford to have the existing accommodations destroyed.

"With additional homes being built throughout the city and with old houses being converted into apartments, new fire prevention problems are arising. Occupants of multiple dwellings are faced with greater fire hazards than those of single units.

"Therefore, it is to the interest of our city to start a year-round campaign to reduce fire losses, so that the needless loss of life due to carelessness and the destruction of property in our city will not occur."

A. F. Busch, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Fire Prevention Committee said that the Chamber is enrolled in the Inter-Chamber national fire waste contest conducted annually on a nation-wide basis.

He said the report of Marion's standing in the contest would be made public at the close of the year, and expressed the desire for the city to be ranked among the leaders in the contest.

At the same time, the National Fire Protection Association, sponsor of National Fire Prevention Week, revealed that structural defects in farm buildings are responsible for many farm fires.

The group announced that 60 to 65 per cent of fire losses on farms result from faulty heating systems and flues, flammable roofing, and unsafe electrical wiring.

In past centuries, sailors crossing the Indian Ocean gave the Andamans a wide berth because island aborigines tortured and massacred shipwreck victims.

PUCO Relaxes Ban on Heating

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state utilities commission today announced relaxation of its regulations on the installation of gas space-heating equipment for all of the area served by the East Ohio Gas Co.

The commission also removed all restrictions on installation of heating equipment for the Bryan Division of the Ohio Gas Co.

The action was taken in the commission's 13th supplemental order on space heating. The first order was issued in the mid-1940s during the war-reduced gas shortage.

Today's order was only a partial order and does not cover the area in which the demand for space heating equipment is the greatest—in central and southwestern Ohio. The commission announced

"The commission will hold in abeyance the decision on the additional number of space-heating customers, if any, that may be connected by the remainder of the gas firms in the state."

The partial order, the commission said, was issued to expedite new connections for East Ohio Gas and Ohio Gas.

These Days

By George Sokolsky

When one visits in a town like Tulsa, Oklahoma, the conversation soon turns to the subject of oil. Imports from foreign countries come to nearly two times the daily production of petroleum in Oklahoma, I am told, and nobody quite likes that.

SOKOLSKY

One matter that concerns oil men is the prospect of flooding the market with Iranian crude oil, which has been off the market since old Mossadegh drove the British out and to which act the world adjusted. That adjustment could be upset if the Iranian oil industry comes into full production.

The United States has undertaken to uphold the government of the Shah against the combination of Mossadegh and the Communist Tudeh party.

THE IRANIAN government is financially bankrupt and must have the assistance of the United States either by subsidies or by the rehabilitation of the oil industry.

Whether the British lien on the Iranian oil industry will be upheld by the United States or whether some other method will be worked out, Iranian oil is likely to come back on the market sooner or later.

The Independent Petroleum Association of America is to meet at Fort Worth this month to discuss the problems arising from the over-production of petroleum.

Overproduction is a difficult term to use in relation to any commodity. At one period, all that appears on the market is purchased and consumed.

Then comes a time when the same amount being produced, the market shows resistance.

As regards oil, such resistance has already manifested itself so far as American oil production is concerned.

ALREADY SOME of the oil states have cut the allowables, by which term is meant the amount of oil that may be taken from the ground each month.

Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas are cutting allowables by 35,000 to 85,000 barrels daily for October. Kansas has instituted a 10-day shutdown of oil wells beginning October 15.

Oil is an irreplaceable natural resource which has become essential to our civilization. Estimates about how soon we shall run out of oil have proved to be unfounded prophecies.

Every time a frightening article on the subject is published, a new oil field is found or American engineers learn how to dig deeper or how to bring oil out of the ground more efficiently.

We are not dealing with an immediate lack of oil deposits. On the other hand, it would seem to be stupid to waste any natural resource and it would be wasteful if the price of oil were forced down to where it would be given away for practically nothing.

DURING A WAR period, such commodities as oil and steel are expanded to meet war consumption, which is necessarily wasteful. While a nation is in the despair of war and is losing its sons, it is impossible to consider the costs in national wealth.

Then comes a period of peace, during which there must be a retraction of production for two reasons, namely, that the requirements for consumption are less and the need for conservation of resources greater.

At first, the retraction is resisted because it may involve some unemployment, possibly a reduction in wages, surely a reduction in taxes. But the economics of the situation will assert themselves: when production exceeds consumption, production must be reduced.

This situation is complicated by the fact that we live in an era when government controls determine the nature of the market. There is no really free market in essential commodities anywhere.

THEREFORE, governments actually determine how much of any commodity is to come on the market. For instance, countries which need dollars will flood the market with commodities with the object of getting dollars.

This problem is further complicated by the fact that most currencies are "soft" money with which the governments arrange to pay their workers, but when they export the commodities they produce, they sell for "hard" currency, that is, American dollars.

They therefore undersell not because they are more efficient producers but because it pays them to get dollars at almost any cost.

Such unsound methods can only lead to disaster because there is no substitute for a free market, but politicians in all countries face economic problems not to achieve stability, but to keep themselves in office as of the moment.

What comes after they are out of office or dead does not concern them.

League Backs Study of Home Rule Charter

Women Voters Work For Formation of Marion Commission

The Marion League of Women Voters, following a study of local government during the last three years, has gone on record as being in favor of the formation of a home rule charter commission for Marion.

In a letter signed by Mrs. Robert Axe, local League president, members expressed their feeling that "the election of a home rule charter commission would be a step towards obtaining a home rule charter for Marion" and explained their reasons for backing the election of a charter commission.

The letter goes on to say that "such a charter commission would be obligated to make a thorough study of the various forms of municipal government permitted under Ohio law. These forms are the present form of state municipal code operation, mayor-council plan, commission plan, council-manager plan, or a combination of these plans.

"It would also be their responsibility to ascertain the desires of the citizens as to what form of government they would prefer. It would then be the commission's duty to write a charter and present it for the citizens to vote upon at a later election. It is required by law that the proposed charter be published and presented to the voters well in advance of the election.

"As a League we are going to study these various forms of government as it is up to us and all citizens to inform ourselves and decide what would best fit Marion.

"We are working for the election of this charter commission. If there is any group that would like to obtain additional information on this issue, the League of Women Voters will be glad to furnish a speaker.

"Persons wishing a speaker can contact Mrs. orman E. Winslow, chairman of the speakers' bureau, at 2-4847."

Street Worker Rescued After Hollywood Cave-In

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A street workman is recovering from shock and bruises after being buried nearly half an hour beneath 10 feet of earth.

A 16-foot sewer ditch caved in to within six or seven feet of the top yesterday while Dave Barlanga 39, was removing timbering which held up the sides.

Other workmen freed one arm in 20 minutes and managed to uncover Barlanga's head five minutes later. Firemen fed air to him by a hose, and after an hour and a half he was released.

CHIEF ORDERS CURFEW

HILLSBORO, Ohio (AP) — Three will be a 9 o'clock curfew for juveniles in Hillsboro until after Halloween. Police Chief Walter Reffitt ordered the curfew after six juveniles had been taken into custody on charges of destruction of property at a local residence.

New Radio Device May Soon Replace Village Fire Sirens

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The eerie "whoop, whoop" of small town fire signals soon may be a sound of the past.

A new radio receiver which could replace the time-honored siren as the alert to send volunteer smoke eaters scampering for their engines was demonstrated yesterday at the International Signal Assn. convention.

Hooked up to radio transmitters such as are used by police, a tone generator is connected with receivers in the homes of firemen. Each button pressed by an operator sounds a tone signal on the home receivers.

Complete with 10 receivers, the set costs about $1,000.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Only Gen. Eisenhower's instinctive respect for counter-intelligence and some very swift investigation by the FBI saved him from appointing a man to his cabinet as secretary of labor who was, and is, a friend of the nation's toughest, wealthiest and most successful labor terrorist and extortioner, Joe Fay.

RIESEL

Had not Eisenhower, as president-elect, insisted that the FBI check every one of his and his party's appointments, the imprisoned Joe Fay, now doing time for extorting $700,000 from the biggest of construction contractors, would have had a friend, Richard Gray, head of the AFL construction trades in the White House.

GRAY WAS recommended to Ike by Washington and Midwest labor men, who told the president-elect that this would be a strategic move.

Eisenhower, knowing little about labor personnel at that time, accepted the recommendation. The FBI checked. Its agents discovered that Dick Gray had not only visited the notorious terrorist, then in Sing Sing, but had written a long letter to Gov. Thomas Dewey asking clemency and freedom for the extortioner.

Ike dropped Gray's name and soon appointed Martin Durkin.

It should be reported here that Gov. Dewey has received hundreds of such letters in Fay's behalf, asking for his release.

These written requests came from the highest of labor leaders, businessmen and government officials.

REFLECTING the enormous influence of Fay, formerly boss and vice-president of the Operating Engineers Union, were moves in his behalf by congressmen (one made a long distance telephone call) and by men who may some day be governors of New York and New Jersey.

Gov. Dewey is considering making public this list—and when he does, it will be seen that not one rank-and-file union duespayer is on it, just leaders.

One of these, New York's Lt. Gov. Wicks, just two weeks ago denied flatly that he had been visiting the imprisoned Joe Fay. This past weekend, he finally admitted seeing the extortioner and embezzler, because "he (Fay) is still a power in labor circles" and he needed "Joe's" help to keep labor peace on public construction projects.

JUST WHO is responsible for permitting this terrorist, whose friends go around threatening those who expose him, to continue to be a "power in labor circles?"

It was Fay, who, in 1940, sidled up to Dave Dubinsky at a restaurant in New Orlean's Hotel Roosevelt and picked a fight with the bantam-sized AFL Ladies Garment Workers Union leader. Dubinsky had just introduced an anti-racketeering resolution at the AFL convention there.

Dubinsky was sitting with his daughter and a newsman, but the presence of the young lady didn't keep the goon from fouling up the air with his gutter language.

There was a scuffle, Dubinsky and his party left, but were literally chased down the hall by Fay and his goons—and again assaulted. When the newsman reported the story, some AFL chiefs tried to talk him out of filing it.

THAT HUSH-HUSH policy has for 13 years made the rackets most powerful in the construction trades section of the AFL. It has resulted in racket infiltration down in the atomic construction areas—already delaying timetables by at least six months.

Who has permitted three of Fay's lieutenants to become such powers in the East that they can still frighten huge corporations and reach into the highest political circles, which made Fay's old Sing-Sing cell a multi-million dollar business headquarters.

The toughest of Fay's lieutenants is an ex-convict, one Martin J. Parkinson, business agent for the Yonkers (N. Y.) AFL Operating Engineers, who extorted $200,000 from firms on the same project which netted boss man Fay $700,000.

PARKINSON was sentenced to a three-to-six year jail term—but now is out on parole. And back on his union job. Who effected that release?

Parkinson's price for keeping labor peace was high—$100,000 a throw. The alternative to such payment was a $400,000 increase in labor costs instead of a "smooth running job."

From this, a crooked labor leader could become rich. To make such money they had to be tough—so tough that when the authorities finally cracked down on the mob, one of the businessmen who had been victimized fled in fear that he would be forced to testify. The police put on a transcontinental search.

FINALLY he was traced from California to Colorado. Between the district attorneys in Los Angeles and Denver, he was located, brought before a Colorado court and compelled to return to testify in New York.

This terror, this big business in creating and then smoothing "labor troubles," is a national industry.

The clean leaders of the AFL need help now in wiping it out. Dubinsky, George Meany, Al J. Hayes, Bill Doherty, Jimmy Petrillo, Bill Schnitzler and many others are human and not bullet proof.

They now must take the initiative, or scandal will cripple all labor—the good with the evil.

Hairdressers' Revenge

By Inez Robb

Girls—of all ages—will be boys, and I guess there isn't very much to be done about it, although I intend to stay in here pitching so long as my arm holds out.

INEZ ROBB

My campaign to get women out of pants and back into dresses by Christmas is getting nowhere. Even though they look like a cross section of the Big Mo amidship, the girls seem determined to stick to pants, or—more aptly—vice versa.

-:-

NOW I SEE by all the fashion forecasts that we are going to compound the felony with crew cuts. By spring of 1954, say the seers of chic, the smart femme fatale will have less hair on her noggin that a chihuahua. Stubble, thats' all, just stubble.

Miss Joan Crawford, Hollywood's hold-over queen, is already leading the way, I read, with a "buth" haircut, a coiffure so short that even a bobby pin can't come to grips.

Women's crowning glory is going the way of all crowns in the twentieth century: into the discard. By the time the hounds of spring, '54, are on winter's traces hair will be virtually passe, with scarcely enough left to cover the holes in milady's head.

BY TULIP TIME next year the present Italian haircut will seem as long as grandma's red flannels. And this despite the fact that only a few months ago it was regarded as only one step removed from the scalp knife.

The hairdressers themselves have thought this up. And if you were to ask me "why? I would hazard the guess that it is out of revenge for the home permanent.

The professional hairdressers have brooded for years over the home permanent as it made increasing inroads on their business. They have at last come up with the answer: stubble. Nothing short of a rolling pin will put a crimp in it.

INDEED, THIS attempt to turn milady into a reasonable facsimile of Eric von Stroheim may be merely a deep laid plot to return wigs to fashion, as they were in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

The average woman is no Joan Crawford, and once she has permitted the hairdresser to run the clippers over her scalp, she may be in the market immediately for a wig, even a fright wig. The return of the wig to high fashion could mean a fortune for the hairdresser and chase the home permanent out of business to boot.

Ah, yes, I think there is more to this crew cut business for the ladies than meets the eye. Something tells me—and I don't need a crystal ball—that a year from now I shan't worry so much about whether my slip shows as whether my wig is on straight.

In the meantime, however, there is other news in the hair department. Some of the more daring belles in Hollywood are actually appearing in public with gray hair.

Barbara Stanwyck apparently started the move. She is that wonderful woman who once said "Only the young die good".

ON HER it looked so good that some of the other girls have been dyeing their hair gray, notably Mitzi Gaynor and, again, Miss Joan Crawford. Perish forbid that anyone suspect that her hair just went and got prematurely gray all by itself!

However, I doubt that the manufacturers of hair dye will have to kill themselves so long as gentlemen prefer blondes, and that is as far into the foreseeable future as man can peer.

Aircraft Firm Offers Increase Of $14 Million

North American Bids To Head Off Strike by Auto Workers Union

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—In an attempt to avert a strike in its Columbus, Los Angeles and Fresno, Calif., plants, North American Aviation, Inc., has offered its employes an estimated 14 million dollars a year in wage increases and other benefits.

Negotiations for a new contract are under way and Columbus UAW—CIO members have authorized their executive board to call a strike Oct. 22 if necessary to force concessions.

A North American spokesman said yesterday the new benefits become effective Oct. 19 for non-bargaining unit and salary employes. If a contract agreement is reached with union men before at time, they will get the same benefits, the spokesman said.

He said wages now range from $1 42 to $2 32 an hour and the union wants a general 23-cent hourly boost.

The union said the company offer was a step in the right direction but it still seeks an improved seniority clause and elimination of certain wage classifications

The company program includes: 1. A 4 per cent base pay increase for all employes. 2 Four cents an hour additional for all hourly and weekly workers in the highest labor grades. 3. Five cents an hour more for group leaders. 4. A 2-cent hourly raise Oct. 26 as a cost of living allowance, and fringe benefits.

Cincinnati To Be New Headquarters for K of P

CINCINNATI, (AP) — Cincinnati was selected yesterday as the new home for the national headquarters of the Knights of Pythias lodge and its affiliates. The organization's national headquarters has been in Minneapolis for 43 years

Lodge officials also made arrangements yesterday for the purchase of headquarters site here The property now includes a large residence and a two-story building. Other buildings are expected to be constructed.

British Troops Land in Guiana

Colony Tense Under Threatened Revolt

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—Britain rushed reinforcements by air to this uneasy colony today as seaborne troops were believed disembarking here under tight military secrecy.

The small group of Europeans in British Guiana welcomed the arrival of three troop-carrying British warships but leftist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan assailed the "show of force"

The airborne troops—120 men of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers—left the West Indies island of Jamaica at midnight for Georgetown aboard five chartered airliners. Other members of the Jamaica garrison had sailed earlier on the three warships which arrived off the capital city yesterday.

Jagan accused the governor of the colony, Sir Alfred Savage, of calling for the troops without consulting his elected ministers

"The responsibility for whatever may happen is entirely that of the governor and those who have advised him," the fiery leader of the People's Progressive party (PPP) told the colony's House of Assembly yesterday.

The PPP, which holds 18 of the Assembly's 24 seats, is demanding greater self - government and a trimming of the governor's powers

Ex-Mental Patient In Indiana Admits He Attacked Coed

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP)—Police say a young former mental patient has admitted the beating and attempted rape of a 19-year-old Akron, Ohio, coed.

Detective Sgt. Robert F. Dillon said Keith Locke, 22, of Hagerstown, Ind, beat the Earlham College student while she was walking across her campus Sunday night and forced her into a car.

Nancy Mehle, daughter of Dr and Mrs. L. B Mehle said the man held her captive about two hours and that she talked him out of raping her.

Locke, Dillon said, was discharged from Richmond State Hospital after an attack on a 14-year-old girl.

The coed is at Reid Memorial Hospital where her condition is reported as fair. She said her attacker hit her head against a tree, ripped her clothing and dragged her to his car.

She is recovering from a nose infection she received while fighting off the attack.

Fish Aids Budget Just Before Payday

Frozen Fillets in Scallop Shells Make Tasty, Delicious Dish

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Just listen to that plaintive food budget! It's the day before payday, so no wonder it's collapsing

This is the time to consider a thrifty package of frozen ocean perch fillets How about serving them deliciously deviled and topped with golden-brown crumbs, for supper? This deep-sea dish is a winner, and so pretty if you turn it into scalloped baking shells and deck it with parsley Offer it with a salad and crusty rolls, economical gingerbread and applesauce for dessert, and you can even ask company.

A pound package of the ocean perch fillets may be used on other days before payday, other ways Just put them into boiling water and simmer them until the flesh is opaque, about 10 minutes Then drain, skin and flake You'll get two cups — the right amount to put into a chowder, a salad, a creamed or creole dish

Most of the ocean perch fillets you buy have the skin on If you want to remove it before cooking here's how. Stretch a fillet out flat on your chopping board, skin side down Hold the tail end securely with one hand With your other hand put the blade of your knife down into the flesh about half an inch from the tail end—but don't cut through the skin. Now slowly push the knife forward between the skin and the flesh, making sure that with the other hand you continue to keep a firm grip on the freed skin

Ocean perch is a fish that's been wayward—it's kept changing its name Rosefish, redfish, red perch and sea perch you may have heard it called Whatever its name, New England fisher folk have known this firm-fleshed seafood for a long, time, but it's only in recent years that it's been filleted and frozen so it could get around to markets all over the country.

Thrifty frozen fish fillets are elegant when you give them savory seasoning and put them in scallop shells.

DEVILED OCEAN PERCH FILLETS

Ingredients: One 1 pound package frozen ocean perch fillets, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 small onion (minced), 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire, 2 teaspons lemon juice, 2 teaspoons prepared mustard, dash of pepper, ½ cup chopped celery, 2 canned pimientos (diced), 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 2 hard cooked eggs (chopped), 1 cup soft buttered bread crumbs.

Method: Let fillets thaw on refrigerator shelf Cut into 4 pieces and place in skillet Add a small amount of water Cover pan and let simmer until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork, about 10 minutes. Drain off water Flake fish into small pieces using two forks and discarding skin, if any Melt butter in a skillet or saucepan Add onion and cook until tender. Remove pan from heat, Stir in flour. Gradually stir in milk Return to moderately low heat and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Mix in remaining ingredients except crumbs, add flaked fish. Spoon mixture into buttered ramekins or baking shells Cover with buttered crumbs Brown in broiler or heat in a hot (400F) oven about 10 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Mix

You don't need BUTTERMILK ...it's already IN THE MIX!

"To my taste," says Duncan Hines, the famous author of Adventures in Good Eating, "there are no more delicious pancakes and waffles than those made with buttermilk.

"That's why, in perfecting Duncan Hines Pancake Mix, I made use of an old-fashioned Southern recipe calling for buttermilk. And for the final touch, I advise adding an egg to the batter—but remember—the buttermilk is already in the mix!

"Then you sit down to the most delicious pancake (or waffle) session you ever enjoyed! Duncan Hines Pancake Mix is at your grocer's now—there's good eating waiting for you."

Green Camp Lodge Schedules County K of P Program

Green Camp Knights of Pythias Lodge will be host to the county meeting of members on Oct. 15, it was announced by Nelson Snyder of near Morral, county deputy, and George W. Reynolds, of near LaRue, chancellor commander of the host lodge.

The official visitor will be Raymond Patton, grand vice chancellor of the Grand Lodge of Ohio.

The district meetings with one of the grand lodge officers as the official visitor was one of the ten points emphasized by Grand Chancellor George H. Thompson in his address to the recent grand lodge convention in Cleveland.

Other points stressed by the grand chancellor were a new youth and welfare commission to raise funds for benefit of physically handicapped children suffering defects of speech, sight and hearing; participation in the public speaking contest; continuation of the highway courtesy program; promotion of radio and TV programs, and newspaper advertising to promote the order; all county deputies will make an official visit to each lodge. These points were brought out in a synopsis of the convention read at last week's Green Camp K of P meeting.

Dairy Industry Urged To Give 'Better Break'

Revamp Prices, Sales Policies, Benson Aide Says in Syracuse

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Asst. Secretary of Agriculture John H. Davis today urged the dairy industry to give consumers "a better break by adopting prices and sales policies that will encourage greater buying of milk and its products.

Lower prices can be offered, he said, if dairymen, distributors and processors reduce costs all the way from the farm to the home.

Davis said the present dairy surplus problem largely reflects under consumption of dairy products, rather than overproduction, from the standpoint of an adequate national diet.

In a speech prepared for a meeting of the Dairymen's League Cooperative, he said the government has had to buy 275 million dollars worth of butter, cheese and dried milk since April 1 to carry out price guarantees to dairymen.

"The disposal of the stocks of dairy products acquired under the price support program poses a very serious problem," Davis said. "And we are looking into every possible outlet we can.

Davis added:

"It is obvious that we cannot dump these stocks onto the market in a way that would undermine our price support system."

Davis said there are two ways of dealing with dairy surpluses. One, he said, would be a reduction of 3 per cent in milk production. The other, he said, is cooperative effort by the dairy industry to gain greater consumption of milk by "offering greater incentives all along the line."

The latter course, he said, appears to be more desirable.

IN THE SERVICE

Marion and Mt. Gilead seamen took part in the recent joint NATO training exercise "Weldfast" aboard the heavy cruiser USS Baltimore in the Mediterranean. They were Andrew Chapman, son of Mrs. Alice Chapman of near Marion and James L. Osborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Osborn of Mt. Gilead and husband of Mrs. Donna M. Osborn of near Edison. United States, British Greek, Turkish and Italian forces participated in the operation which ended Wednesday. The exercise was aimed at testing and strengthening the readiness of land, sea and air forces to operate and maneuver in the defense of Allied Powers Europe's Southern European and Mediterranean Command Area.

Erie County Boys Fined $50 for 1952 Halloween Prank

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—A prank last Halloween cost three Erie County youths $50 and costs each yesterday when they finally pleaded guilty before Judge James L. McCrystal.

George A. Ritz, 21, of Anderson Acres; Richard Rommel, 18, and Thomas Bickley, 20, of Milan, pleaded guilty to charges they put an unlighted cultipacker across Fox road that night.

Charles Ohlemacher of Sandusky lost control of his car because of the prank and sideswiped the cultipacker, causing $750 worth of damage.

Not until last summer did the sheriff's department find out who put the farm machine on the road.

County Democrats Fill Vacant Treasurer Post

A covered dish supper preceded a business meeting of the Marion County Democratic Club Tuesday night in the community room of the West Town Branch Bank.

Eugene Foos, president, was in charge of the business session during which Kenneth Tobin was named treasurer to fill a vacancy made by the resignation of Herbert Krebs. Harold Clark, Closs Musgrave and Mrs. Frank D. Bentz were named a nominating committee for the annual election of officers Dec. 1. There will be no meeting in November it was announced.

Thomas Fetter, Central executive committeeman, gave a talk on the Democratic meeting honoring Adelaide Stephenson, held recently in Chicago and also introduced local candidates.

The committee in charge of the supper included Mrs. Thomas Fetter, Mrs. Glen Burton and Mrs. Clifford B. Stoll.

Pennsylvania Men Fix Landing Gear in Air

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Nicholas Morohovich, 38, of nearby Conneaut Lake, and Francis Confer, 31, of Adamsville, took off in their four-seater airplane yesterday for a routine flight.

Then Morohovich heard a loud snap and discovered his landing gear had broken and was dangling under the fuselage.

Making a lasso out of two safety belts, he leaned far out of the plane, snagged the gear and tied it to a strut while Confer piloted the plane with one hand and held the other man's legs with the other.

Morohovich then took the controls and landed the ship.

Representative Named At Mt. Olive Grange

Richard Porter will represent Mt. Olive Grange in the state Grange contest to select the "Jewel of Ohio" which will be held soon in Columbus. Miss Lois Rothfuss is Mt. Olive's candidate for queen.

A wedding gift was presented at the recent Grange meeting to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hedges.

Recently elected officers of the Grange will be installed in a county-wide ceremony, Oct. 10 at Whetstone Grange.

Mrs. Ruth Ann Lyon was named chairman of a committee to purchase wedding gifts the coming year. Mrs. Dorothy Porter and Mrs. Gladys Lindley will serve on the flower committee.

Harding Winds Up Drills for Invasion by Fostoria

Undefeated Prexies Seek Third Buckeye Loop Win

Harding High School's footballers today were set to wind up preparations for Fostoria's invasion Friday night. The Redmen will be seeking their first win in Buckeye League play while Pete Howison's Prexies will be after their third in the league and fourth of the season.

Fostoria was belted by Fremont last week 40-6 in its league opener. Harding has wins over Bowling Green and Tiffin Columbian in loop action

In Top Condition

While Harding is expected to go into the fray at its best physical shape of the season. Fostoria may be weakened. Reports from the Redmen's camp have Coach Dick Small's squad 'all banged up.'

Fostoria's only win thus far came in its second game of the campaign when the Redmen edged Cuyahoga Falls 7-6. That win followed a 38-6 pasting from Toledo Clay in the opener and was followed by the whipping administered last week by Fremont.

With his injury-riddled squad, Small probably will line up with Jimmy McIntire, 159-pound senior, and Tony Nixon, 192-pound sophomore, at the ends. Bill Messenger, 171 pounds, and Dave Fillhart, 193, will be at the tackle posts while at the guard spots will be Don Hauser, 173-pound junior, and Bill Radcliff, a junior weighing in at 143 Roy Stine, 197-pound senior, or Don Frankfather, 172-pound junior, will be at center.

Landers Calls Plays

Calling the signals for the visitors will be veteran Quarterback Hubert Landers. Small is extremely thin at the halfback slots where two are out with flu. Duane Pierce, 166-pound junior, and Jim McClung, 146-pound junior, will probably fill the posts with additional help coming from Bob Radcliff. At fullback will be Adolph Metzel, a 174-pound junior.

Small has switched from the T-formation used last year and now runs exclusively from a single wing. Landers is a dangerous passer but his favorite target from last year and this season, Dick Arwood, may not see any action here

Harding will be out for revenge in this year's game. Last year, the Prexies dropped a free-scoring game to the Redmen by a 34-26 count. The Prexies racked up 416 yards during the game but were killed by fumbles.

Four fumbles, all within the 30-yard line, spiked Harding threats. All four were recovered by Fostoria and three times the Redmen started scoring marches. One of the Prexy fumbles came just as a back was going over the goal line. Fostoria recovered and started from its own 20 for the final tally.

The loss last year came after the Harding squad had dropped behind 13-0 early in the first frame but by the start of the final period had managed to fight its way back to a 20-20 tie.

By John Short

Harding is picked to grab its fourth straight win this weekend against Fostoria by The Star's panel of prognosticators. Claridon is a unanimous choice in Double - M six-man play while Ohio State is picked to get by Illinois.

SHORT

Dolores Basinger, state editor for The Star, marks the first feminine guest of the season Her work with towns and villages in this area might serve her well as she tries her hand against the more experienced panelists.

Due to the lack of games in the area, three collegiate games are included in this week's list The pickers will keep their eyes on games which, in addition to the Harding battle, sends Richwood to Cardington, Centerburg to Mt Gilead, Marysville to London, Galion to Crestline, Shelby to Upper Sandusky, Fredericktown to Elm Valley, Kenton to Forest, Bucyrus to Willard, Caledonia to LaRue, Claridon to Sparta, Ohio Wesleyan to Case Tech, Wittenberg to Heidelberg and Illinois to Ohio State.

In the game which before the season opened was seen as one of the top games of the year in this area, Shelby's Whippets invade Upper Sandusky. That game was expected to have decided the Northern Ohio League title but the Rams were upset last week by Bellevue and will be fighting to remain in the league race Only Bill Stanbro and Bill Diem see any chance for the Upper Sandusky team.

DOLORES BASINGER: Harding, Richwood, Centerburg, Marysville, Galion, Shelby, Fredericktown, Kenton, Bucyrus, LaRue, Claridon, Ohio Wesleyan, Heidelberg and Ohio State.

BILL DIEM: Harding, Richwood, Centerburg, London, Galion, Upper Sandusky, Elm Valley, Kenton, Bucyrus, Caledonia, Claridon, Ohio Wesleyan, Heidelberg and Ohio State.

Barons Award Contracts to 2 Defensemen

Coach Ott Heller of the Marion Barons Hockey Club announced the signing of two 6-1., 200 pounders to give the Marion Barons two of the biggest defensemen in the International Hockey League today.

"With Ted Lebodia and Al Kellogg on our back wall attacking forwards will have to keep their heads up this season," Heller said.

Lebioda won the name of "Yogi" one season because of his strict ideas on training. He believes it aids the circulation by standing on your head for half an hour every morning. Thus far he has been unable to convince any of his teammates of the advisability of the head stands.

Ted played last season with Seattle in the Pacific Coast Hockey League and finished the season with the Troy Bruins of the International Hockey League. He was born in Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, December 9, 1931. He is single. In the summer months he attends business college where he is studying accounting

Kellogg delivers a crushing body check and loves the rough going. He is fast for his size and build.

Last season he made the all-star team in the Ontario Hockey Association. He is an electrician by trade and in the summer time plays lacrosse, a game which calls for many of the skills of hockey and basketball.

He was born in Winchester, Ontario, October 14, 1933 and is single

The Marion Barons play the American League Champion Cleveland Barons in an exhibition game Sunday, at 3 p.m. in the first hockey game to be played on the new Coliseum ice rink.

At the start of the 1953 college football season the University of Texas had played 535 football games, winning 375, losing 137 and tying 23.

Six-Man Teams Ready for Play

Three of the Double-M Six Man Football League's undefeated teams are in action against second division clubs in the fourth week of activity Friday night

Caledonia, 0-2, is at LaRue, 2-0, Chesterville 2-0, is at Marengo 1-1, and Claridon, 2-0, meets Sparta, 0-2, at the Centerburg field.

Sparta is playing all its home games at the Centerburg field as its field has no lights. Caledonia is getting its field lighted and also is playing its home games away.

Idle this week are Johnsville, 2-1, and Waldo, 0-3, which is making its debut in Double M League play this year.

LaRue and Claridon are defending Double-M League champs. LaRue edged Claridon 7-6 in their abbreviated preview game this year In other preview matches, Caledonia downed Johnsville 13-6 and Chesterville tripped Marengo 12-0.

In league action this year, LaRue has downed Waldo 35-10 and Johnsville 31-16; Claridon has defeated Marengo 32-6 and Waldo 26-8, Chesterville has rolled by Sparta 36-0 and Caledonia 38-13, and Johnsville had downed Waldo 27-19 and Caledonia 30-20 while losing to the LaRue squad.

Washington Woman Succeeds India Edwards

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new director of women's activities for the Democratic National Committee is a chic blonde who says she likes being a homebody as much as she likes a career.

Katie Scofield Louchheim, named to the post resigned by Mrs India Edwards yesterday, also says she likes being called Katie.

Her husband, Walter C. Louchheim Jr., is a private consultant on financial and investment matters in Washington now, but for 19 years was foreign economic adviser to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Restraining Order Obtained by Smart

DETROIT (AP) — Harness racing Driver — Trainer Wayne (Curly) Smart obtained a temporary court injunction yesterday preventing enforcement of a one-year suspension by the Michigan Racing Commission.

The veteran Delaware, Ohio, horseman was suspended in connection with the alleged application of a medicant to the trotter Abbasong at Wolverine Raceway here Aug. 19.

On Sept. 16 Smart obtained a temporary restraining order similar to today's injunction. The court actions are designed to hold up the suspension pending a decision on Smart's circuit court suit seeking to overrule the ban

Dressen, Noren Draw Fines for Series Actions

NEW YORK (AP) — Nobody was tossed out of a World Series game and there were no full scale Rhubarbs, even in Brooklyn, but two $100 fines have been levied just the same.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick wound up his World Series accounting yesterday by docking Manager Charlie Dressen of Brooklyn and reserve outfielder Irv Noren of the Yankees.

Frick fined Dressen for arguing with Umpire Art Gore about a four ball call in the fourth game. He nicked Noren for waving a towel at the press box in the final game, protesting the official scorers' decision on a ball hit by Billy Martin. The scorers called it an error on Junior Gilham. Martin who later tied the all-time series hitting total, would have broken the record if the scorers had ruled in his favor.

25 Golfers Expected To Enter Marion County Title Matches

Some 20 to 25 golfers are expected to compete for The Marion Star championship trophy in this year's county golf tournament on the Country Club course.

The 36-hole medal-play tourney begins with an 18-hole round Sunday and winds up with another 18 holes a week later

A new champion will be crowned this year. Last year's winner, Rex Redman, has moved to California and will not be around to defend the title he held for four years.

Deadline for entering the competition has been set for 5 p.m. Friday. Entries should be made at the Country Club pro shop. So far 16 have entered.

In addition to The Star trophy more than 10 prizes will be awarded by Marion merchants. Sunday's pairings will be announced in Saturday's Star.

American League Gets Part of NL Series Cut

DETROIT (AP) — An American League pitcher for a sixth place club received a National League share of World Series money.

He is Ralph Branca, 27-year-old right hander of the Detroit Tigers, who came to Detroit from the Brooklyn Dodgers on waivers during the last season.

Branca was awarded a quarter share or $1,544 61 by his former teammates who lost the world championship to the New York Yankees.

White Sox Willing

Chicago's Frank Lane May Be Headed for Baltimore

CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—Dynamic Frank Lane, whose numerous baseball deals have involved 170 players in five years as general manager of the Chicago White Sox, was never as cagey as he is today.

Now, he's dealing with something really close to home—himself. And he's keeping everybody guessing, especially the Comiskey clan

The only thing fairly certain is that Lane, a tireless 57, will improve his salary, either getting more from the White Sox to stay or more from the new Baltimore Orioles to leave

It's Lane's most stupendous deal of all—because he knows he can't lose.

He appears headed to Baltimore as general manager. The lure dangled by the well-healed syndicate that picked up the St. Louis Browns' franchise is described as a handsome salary, a block of stock and full authority

Chuck Comiskey, 27-year-old vice president of the White Sox and destined to become the absolute ruler of the club founded by his grandfather, has confirmed that the possible move by Lane is beyond the rumor stage.

He said that "Lane's situation—whether he's going to Baltimore or remaining in Chicago—is now under consideration."

This indicates the White Sox have given Baltimore consent to negotiate and the new American League club cannot be accused of violating the "tampering laws"

Lane's Sox contract reportedly calling for $25,000 to $30,000 annually plus a good bonus based on attendance, still has two years to go.

Lane conferred with the Sox president, Mrs. Grace Comiskey, yesterday and later huddled at the home of the club's attorney, Roy Egan.

"It was more just conversation than anything," said Egan of his talk with baseball's Trader Horn. "No decisions were reached. While we would not care to hold Lane to his contract if he finds the Oriole offer irresistible, we would want to make certain that the Baltimore people, in their enthusiasm, have not taken him high on the mountain to show him the golden city."

Lane could not be reached for comment

Meanwhile, there was a new speculative trend that involved Manager Paul Richards going with Lane if he shifts to Baltimore. It was Lane who insisted on getting Richards for the Sox and they form quite a mutual admiration society.

Richards has one year to go on his present contract and it was not known if he could be, or would be willing, to be pried loose.

Yankees Pocket $8,280 Pay for Play in Series

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees, often accused of acting more like bankers than ballplayers could offer some interesting financial figures today to back up their off-field behavior.

For their six days work in winning their fifth straight World series the Yankees split a melon of $290,363 48 Twenty - two players plus Manager Casey Stengel, four coaches, a trainer and the road secretary collected a record $8,280 68 each

Sixteen other men received partial shares ranging from $6,210 50 for pitcher Bill Miller, shortstop Willie Miranda and clubhouse chief Peter Sheehy down to $400 each for two bat boys

Nine of the Yankee players collected the big winners' share of the series pool for the fifth straight year Over this period they have each received $32,112.91 They are Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer, Eddie Lopat, John Mize, Vic Raschi, Allie Reynolds, Phil Rizzuto, Charlie Silvera and Gene Woodling.

The losing Brooklyn Dodgers split their pot of $193,175.65 into 29 full shares and six fractional pieces A Dodgerh full share was worth $6 178 42 In losing last year each Dodger collected $4,200 64

The figures were announced yesterday by Commissioner Ford Frick. He also disclosed the totals for the other first division clubs who share in the player pool

Milwaukee in the National League and Cleveland in the American, the second-place clubs, received $51,850 62 each The Chicago White Sox got $34,567 08 for finishing third in the American League and the fourth-place Boston Red Sox received $17 283 54 The Philadelphia Phillies and St Louis Cardinals, who tied for third in the National League, received $25,925 31 each.

NEW FOOTBALL SYSTEM

NEW YORK (AP)—Coach Steve Owen is introducing the Swing T asthe basic plan of offense used by the New York Football Giants in the NFL championship race this fall A combination of offense system Owen says the Swing T allows players to shift from T to single wing or double wing, or to any variation of these basic plays The key to the new system is the "swing man," who can play fullback or halfback in the T, and tour blocking back in the single wing A formation

Buckeyes Rated Slightly Better Than Illinois

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP)—Settling down to a steady diet of blocking and tackling now that the bunting and base stealing is finished for the year.

Last Thursday's forecasts had 37 winners in the 47 games that reached a decision. That's an average of .787 and lifted the season's record to .763 with 87 winners, 27 losers.

This week's predictions:

Michigan State over Texas Christian: If the Spartans drop this one it will be the biggest surprise since David mastered Goliath. Michigan State by three touchdowns.

Texas over Oklahoma: The betting gentry says that the Sooners will win but the feeling here is that the Longhorns will get revenge for that 49-20 setback of a year ago. You will be able to see this one on your TV set.

UCLA over Wisconsin: Two defensive stalwarts although each boasts an outstanding ground gaining star. The Badgers have Alan (The Horse) Ameche and the UCLAns Paul Cameron, and all-around dandy. It is a Friday night struggle.

Penn over California: Here's another the betting gentlemen say is wrong but the Quakers should win their third straight 13-7 decision

Maryland over Georgia: Not enough help for Zeke Bratkowski and Bob Clemens.

Michigan over Iowa: The Iowa sophomores will learn that Michigan is an entirely different team than Washington State. Tony Brandoff, a new wingback, to help the Wolverine chances

Southern California over Washington: Those Trojans not only are mighty they are big too

Duke over Purdue This is Homecoming Day for the Dukes and the first Big Ten team to invade the newly formed Atlantic Coast Conference will pay the penalty.

Ohio State over Illinois. Two free-wheeling teams on offense with Bobby Watkins giving the Buckeyes the greater power. He also is a definite asset in this day of the one-platoon.

Navy over Cornell: The Midshipmen really have started rolling but Cornell should offer more opposition than Dartmouth did a week ago.

Southern Methodist over Missouri: Missouri's list of injured extends from St. Louis to Kansas City. It is a Friday night game.

Mississippi State over Auburn: Don't see how Auburn can win while Jackie Parker is in a Mississippi State uniform.

Skipping over the others:

Midwest: Northwestern over Minnesota, Oklahoma A&M over Wichita, Kansas over Colorado, Kansas State over Iowa State.

HURLS NO-HITTER

Richard Craycraft tossed a no-hitter at Green Camp Junior High School as his Morral Junior High School mates pounded out a 6-0 win yesterday In hurling undefeated Morral to its seventh straight victory, he struck out 11 and walked four His teammates were only able to tap Bish for two hits but made the most of a walk and three Green Camp errors.

In the Cleveland Indians' last home stand of 1953 against the eastern clubs, the Tribe completed at least one double play in each game.

Buck Gridders Set Defenses Against Illini

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's unbeaten Bucks packed a heap of defensive work into yesterday's drill as they prepared to meet a double-barrelled Illinois attack Saturday.

His boys are figured to come out on top but the Ohio maestro isn't taking any chances. He knows Illini can be rough—witness their uphill 33-21 victory over Stanford last week.

The experts expect Saturday's clash to be a booming battle ending in a big score Hoping to get his charges across the goal line fustest with the mostest, Hayes worked them overtime.

Hayes has a problem in who to start at fullback He has available Jack Gibbs, of Columbus, who returned to action yesterday after several weeks out with a shoulder separation; Dave Leggett of New Philadelphia and Jerry Harkrader, sophomore flash from Middletown, to fill the slot But Hayes says he is not worrying too much about making the selection.

Sooners, Texas Clash in Video Football Game

NEW YORK (AP)—Intense rivalry rides with the 48th renewal of the Southwest's interconference classic between Oklahoma and Texas Saturday which will be telecast to a nationwide audience.

Texas, the most successful Southwest Conference team over the years, leads the series with 30 victories to 15 for Oklahoma while two have ende din ties. But the Sooners, tops in the Big Seven have won four of the last five meetings and are expected to enter the game three-point favorites despite a loss to Notre Dame and a tie with Pitt in their first two outings.

The series began back in 1900 with a 28-2 Texas triumph and has been a continuous affair since 1929. In the past the game has been one of thrills and bone-crushing play where favorite roles meant little—and this year's contest figures to be the same.

Last year Oklahoma exploded for 28 points in the first 11 minutes and an overwhelming 49-20 victory—hifhest score since the Sooners's 50-0 surge in 1908 That's why Oklahomans fear a counterburst Saturday.

Both coaches want this one badly. Ed Price, who never lost to Oklahoma as a star end for the Longhorns 1930-32, is counting heavily on the running of Dougal Cameron and Billy Quinn and the masterminding of the quarterback tandem of Bunny Andrews and Charles Brewer.

Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson has been experimenting with Gene Calame at quarterback in place of Buddy Leake in preparation for the eighth straight sellout battle in Dallas' huge Cotton Bowl. In other changes Max Boydston moves back to end from fullback and Tom Carroll moves into left half to replace the injured Jack Ging.

The St Louis Browns did not win a game in Cleveland during the 1953 baseball season. They dropped all 11 contests

Blues Rally, Win Little Series Game

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Down but not out, the Kansas City Blues last night battled from behind to beat Montreal 4-3 and keep alive their slim hopes in the Little World Series.

The best of seven series now stands at 3-1 in favor of Montreal

The Blues scraped themselves of the floor and turned in a sparkling performance, scoring the tying and winning runs in the last of the sixth inning last night.

Montreal lost the services of its power hitting first baseman, Rocky Nelson. He left the game for his home in West Portsmouth, Ohio, where his father is critically ill.

NAMED CHAMP BULL

WATERLOO, Iowa (AP) — Shirecrest Famous, an Ayrshire bull owned by West Unity Ayrshire Farms, West Unity, Ohio, won the grand champion award yesterday in the National Dairy Breed Show at the Dairy Cattle Congress.

LONELY HERO. Pain and days of loneliness have been the only rewards for Orville Ratliff's Sept. 25 attempt to rescue a man from a wrecked car. The 44-year-old Hinton, W. Va., bachelor has been an unvisited patient at a Louisville, Ky., hospital since he was burned when the car's gasoline tank exploded. Ironically, the man he sought to save wasn't injured. Although the man and two others who also escaped haven't visited Ratliff, he said, "I'd do it again."

Ike Revamps Federal Agencies

New FCC Boss Is Stranger to Lobbyists

By EDWARD E. NELLOR

WASHINGTON (NANA)—President Eisenhower's appointment of Robert E. Lee to the Federal Communications Commission is an opening wedge in the administration's drive to examine and politically reorient government regulatory agencies.

Lee, Federal Bureau of Investigation - trained, is one of the ablest investigators in the federal government's bureaucratic jungle. He leaves the post of director in charge of investigations and reports of the House appropriations committee, a job he has held for the past five years, to take the seat on the FCC.

Lee has had no previous experience in the radio or television broadcasting business, which is the province of the FCC, and that is one of the prime reasons the President selected him for the job.

At a White House briefing prior to the swearing in ceremonies Tuesday noon, he was instructed to waste little time in getting down to work in his new job.

THE PRESIDENT, in one of his earliest statements after moving into the White House, said he would create a different climate in the regulatory agencies of the government as soon as he had a chance to have their operations examined thoroughly.

The regulatory agencies are those with the closest supervisory functions over commercial interests in the nation.

The FCC has the licensing authority for TV and radio stations and has long been accused of favoritism in granting licenses to those near the political throne in Washington.

A similar agency, the Civil Aeronautics Board, which regulates airlines, is next in succession for presidential attention. Oswald Ryan, current CAB chairman, is slated for a job that will kick him upstairs in order to create a vacancy for a presidential appointment. Ryan was appointed to the CAB by former President Truman. He moved to the chairmanship shortly after President Eisenhower took office. He has been a constant target of critics since then and this has moved Mr. Eisenhower to re-examine Ryan's status, resulting in the search for a new job for him.

Rosel M. Hyde is the present chairman of the FCC. The board has seven members, three from each of the two political parties, with an independent chairman. Terms are for seven years.

THE LEE appointment dropped like a blockbuster on the radio and television business interests. He is a complete unknown to them and has not been publicly associated with the vacancy. In the past major networks indulged in considerable jockeying over appointments, seeking to place candidates they considered helpful to them. Lee belongs to none of the factions regulated by the FCC, a factor that pleased the White House.

Lee, son of a Chicago policeman and graduate accountant of DePauw University in Illinois, served in the FBI for 10 years prior to joining the House appropriation committee's staff. He was personnel director of the FBI when he left that agency.

He is a Catholic, with three children. His wife is active in Republican politics in the District of Columbia. Lee was selected in 1949 by the Cowles publications as one of the 10 most promising young men in Washington working for the government. He was interrogated by the Senate elections subcommittee for his part in the Maryland campaign in 1950 that unseated the veteran senator, Millard Tydings.

His appointment reveals that the administration has begun to direct its attention to the sub-cabinet agencies largely staffed by previous administration holdovers. The presidential pat on the back he received at his White House briefing is indicative of Mr. Eisenhower's interest in operating those agencies in conformity with his ideas of government.

Ram Gridders Say UCLA Staff Serves as Scouts for Cards

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Admitting there is nothing wrong with the ethics of the practice, Los Angeles Ram professional football players from UCLA said today they don't like the idea of being scouted by coaches from their alma mater.

So said Capt. Don Paul, star linebacker of the Rams, protesting over the fact that Head Coach Red Sanders had permitted several of his assistants to scout the Rams for the Chicago Cardinals.

Sanders, in a vigorous reply, termed the local controversy the outgrowth of a feud between Hampton Pool, head coach of the Rams, and Joe Stydahar of the Cardinals, whom he replaced as Ram coach last year.

Footballer Bob Waterfield, retired former star quarterback for both the Rams and the UCLANS, brought the matter to the steaming point yesterday when he criticized the Sanders policy.

Replying to Waterfield, Sanders said: "UCLA is so ar bigger than Waterfield and the Rams that it would be ridiculous to dignify this statement by any further answer."

4-Horse Pileup Injures Driver

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Al Clark of Westbury, N. Y., suffered a broken jaw and a possible skull fracture in a spectacular four-horse pileup at the head of the stretch at Yonkers Raceway last night.

The spill occurred during the fourth race and was seen on television in the New York area.

It involved Peter Gallon, driven by Pierce Chappell; Clark, behind Scotland Hanover; Ensing Harmony, driven by George Phalen, and Worthy Gal, handled by Cecil Champion. Ensign Harmony was the only horse injured. Chappell, Phalen and Champion suffered minor cuts and bruises.

Delaware School Board Orders Center Closed

Special to The Star

DELAWARE — The Youth Recreation Center at the old North School here was closed last night by the city board of education until the heating plant in the building is improved.

The order to close the center was brought about by the refusal of an insurance company to continue coverage of the building until the heating plant is repaired. The plant is not considered safe for operation. School board president E. F. Carlisle said the action was taken in order to protect the young people who use the center. He said that if parents and young people are in favor of the continued use of the building, the board will make every attempt to work out the heating problem.

"But at this time," he said, "the board must act for the safety of the young people and to reduce the fire hazard to the building." The insurance company said limited coverage would be maintained if the heating plant is not operated.

Two Minor Accidents Reported by City Police

Two minor accidents in city traffic were reported by the police department this morning. No accidents were reported by the state highway patrol and the sheriff's office.

Two east-bound vehicles were slightly damaged in a collision on W. Center St. at Olney Ave. at 3:56 p.m. yesterday. George Huffman, 40, of 516 Henry St., was the driver of a pick-up truck which was damaged in the rear bumper. A car driven by William S. Pfleiderer, 18, of Waldo was damaged in the front end.

Cars driven by Ralph Redd, 37, 788 York St., and Corbett W. Woods, 25, of 339 W. Center St., were involved in an accident at 681 W. Center St. at 6:44 a.m. today. The right front fender of the Redd car was damaged slightly.

School at Mansfield Asks Vacant NOL Spot

UPPER SANDUSKY — Mansfield Madison High School has made application for membership in the Northern Ohio League here. Athletic Director Earl Shaffer received the notice here Wednesday.

Mansfield's application came on the heels of an announcement by Crestline school officials that the school would withdraw from the "too tough" eight-school league at the end of the current school year.

Application of Mansfield Madison will be acted upon at the semi-annual meeting of Northern Ohio League officials Nov. 18 at Crestline High School. Upper Sandusky, Shelby, Galion, Bucyrus, Norwalk, Willard, and Bellevue are members of the league.

Truman Will Speak Tonight in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman speaks here tonight and has announced he will have something to say about the domestic policies of the Eisenhower administration.

The occasion is a dinner in Truman's honor at which he will receive the $1,000 annual award from the Sidney Hillman Foundation for meritorious public service.

A delayed broadcast of the 8:30 p.m. CST speech will be carried by the ABC radio network starting at 10:35 p.m. CST.

TRUCKER'S BODY RETURNED

The body of Martin V. Miller, Indianapolis, Ind., truck driver who died in Marion City Hospital Wednesday morning, has been removed from the Merle H. Hughes Mortuary on Mt. Vernon Ave. to the Harry Moore Peace Chapel at Indianapolis. Mr. Miller was stricken ill while unloading meat Tuesday at the City Provision Co. here. He was a native of Brazil, Ind., and was employed by the Kingan & Co. of Indianapolis.

Ouster of Two on Planning Board Is Voted in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — Dividing on party lines, the Cincinnati City Council voted yesterday to ask for the resignation of two members of the City Planning Commission on the grounds they withheld information from other commission members.

The two—Wallace Collett and Henry Bettman—admitted to the council that they did not tell other commission members of statements by Sydney Williams that he had been connected with Communist-affiliated organizations before and after World War II.

They said Wilhams made the statements to them when they were interviewing him in connection with his application for the job as city planning director.

Williams was hired last spring but resigned Monday after Republican Councilman Douglass M. Allen disclosed he had learned recently of the information given to Bettman and Collett.

Four Republican members of the council voted to ask for the resignations. They were opposed by three Charter party members.

Rites Set for Baltimore Boy, 4, Victim of Cancer

BALTIMORE (AP)—Funeral services will be held here Saturday for John Hoffman, 4½-year-old brain cancer victim whose last days had been brightened by a pony and cart which state fair officials gave him.

John died at Sinai Hospital late Tuesday after having been admitted earlier in the day in the final stage of his illness.

It was on Sept. 12, the final day of the Timonium State Fair, that fair officials gave him the pony, which he named Punch, and a yellow cart trimmed in red. Johnny took several rides in it before his illness grew worse a little more than a week ago.

Boy, 3, Fires Shotgun At Rat, Wounds Father

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Clarence H. Fields, 26, of Obetz, returned from a rat-killing expedition and placed his shotgun in a corner, still loaded.

His 3-year-old son yelled, "There goes a rat," and blasted away with the gun.

Fields was in a St. Francis Hospital bed today with a charge of buckshot in the place where he sits down.

LET'S EXPLORE OHIO

Once the busiest center of activity in the Ohio Country was this office of the Ohio Company at Marietta. This structure, built in 1788 as the headquarters of the organization of pioneers who established Marietta as the first permanent settlement in Ohio, is still visited each year by many thousands of motorists.

It was 15 years after this office building was constructed that Ohio became a state

GRIDDER WON AWARDS

DURHAM, N C (AP)—Jonn Carey, Duke's football linebacker, was quite a leader on the campus. He won three special honors when he graduated in June. He was elected to Phi Betta Kappa, won the Robert E. Lee Prize for athletic achievements and the Algernon Sydney Sullivan award for outstanding service to his fellow men.

Italian Birth Rate Low, Population Up

ROME (UP) — Modern Italians are giving birth to babies at a rate less than half the record pace set by their grandparents, the Central Institute of Statistics has revealed.

The year 1952 was the all-time low. There were only 17 6 per thousand squalling additions to the already bursting population compared to 38 0 per thousand in 1881—peak year since records were kept

The downward trend has been underway for two generations, even during the time when Benito Mussolini called for more children for his empire.

But still the population is growing. Better living conditions and state-sponsored social assistance have produced a parallel drop in the death rate which fell from the 1881 peak of 27 3 per thousand to 10 per thousand in 1952

The latest census showed there were 47,100,000 Italians on the peninsula and its satellite islands—a teeming number for a country that is economically poor.

The institute termed the growth of the Italian population, featured by both low birth-rate and low mortality, "economical"

It said the immediate result of the trend is that the population is aging—there are more middle-aged Italians and fewer youngsters. Ultimately there will be more aged people, and the birth rate will go down even more.

The hot and backward south was still pacing the rest of Italy in baby production. The regions of Basilicata and Calabria, on the toe of the peninsula, stood out with a birth-rate of 25.4 and 25 1 respectively.

At the other end of the scale, the region of Liguria, in the northwestern section of the peninsula, had a birth rate of 9 9 per thousand, lowest in the land.

Italians, by the way, are growing taller, the statistics indicated Figures furnished by the military authorities showed the average height of Italians born in 1854 was 63.77 inches, the average height of Italians born in 1927 was 65 74 inches.

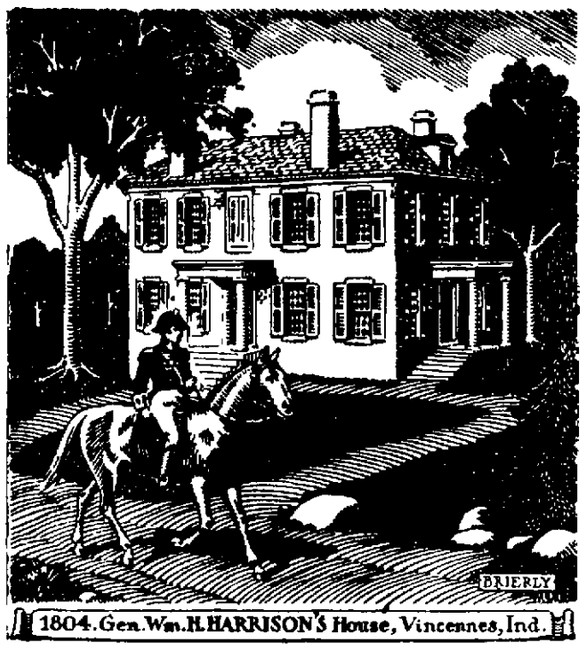
Homes of Famous People



1804. Gen. Wm. H. HARRISON'S House, Vincennes, Ind.

By The Associated Press

This fine old mansion was built in 1804, by General William Henry Harrison, later to become ninth President of the United States, but at this time, the governor of the Indiana Territory, which appointment he had received from President Thomas Jefferson in 1800. The house was probably the first west of the Alleghenies, to be built of burned brick, and was a solid structure with basement walls 24 inches in thickness. The wood-work of the interior, the sash, doors, mantels and stairs were of black-walnut, said to have been made in Pittsburgh. These were troublous times, with constant fear of attack from hostile Indians and, in view of this contingency, on one side of the large cellar, there was an entrance to a tunnel leading to the Wabash River, 600 feet distance. By this tunnel, the Governor and his family, if hard pressed, could escape to a canoe on the river bank, or could obtain food and water. In recent years, the mansion faced destruction, but has been saved and restored by the Francis Vigo Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and is open to the public.

Griffin-Smith Wedding Read at Belle Vernon

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY — Virginia K. Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Griffin, Sr., of near Upper Sandusky, became the bride of Robert H. Smith of Mt. Gilead, son of W. O. Smith and Mrs. Carl James of Lexington, Sunday at 7 p.m. in the Belle Vernon Evangelical United Brethren Church. The Rev. E. Ted Wonder officiated at the double ring ceremony. Serving as maid of honor was Joanne Griffin, sister of the bride. Serving as best man was Lloyd Grogg, of Mt. Gilead, friend of the couple. During the ceremony Rev. John Osborn of Johnsville, played nuptial music, with Mrs. E. Ted Wonder singing "The Lord's Prayer."

The new Mrs. Smith is a 1950 graduate of Sycamore High School. She has been employed at the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. in Tiffin. Mr. Smith was graduated from Johnsville High School in 1949, and is employed in Mansfield with the Ideal Electric Co. After Oct. 14, the couple will be at home to their friends in Mansfield.

Some trees are estimated to consume 220 gallons of water a day.

Hotel Has Outlet For Tall Fish Stories

CHICAGO (UP)—A hotel restaurant that features an extensive list of seafoods has decided to give its customers a chance to stand up and be counted on the kind of stories they tell about fish and the catching thereof.

James A. Hart, president of the Sherman Hotel, announced a contest for the "tallest" fish story that can be told by a man, a woman, or both together will continue until Nov. 1.

Awards will be made at a gala seafood dinner at the hotel Nov. 8. Sports and outdoor notables will judge the competition, and the Jonah award, for the best story told by a contestant, will consist of a whale mounted on a plaque with an appropriate inscription.

TURNS CHEERLEADER

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP)—The enthusiasm and acrobatics of student football manager Bill Garvin at West Virginia University football games last season were rare things to watch. The youth's antics touched the imagination of college officials and students alike. As a result, this football season Garvin will be a varsity cheerleader.

Future Marathon Star Gets Off to Early Start

HENRYETTA, Okla. (UP)—County officers breathed a sigh of relief when a four-year-old boy who could "run like the dickens" was finally returned to his parents.

The child, staying here with an aunt, decided at 7 a.m. he wanted to go home to Okmulgee, about 15 miles away. He got out of bed and started running.

The alarmed aunt called the sheriff, who found the boy still running about seven miles from Henryetta. The sheriff hauled the boy back to the aunt's house in a car and returned to his office.

A few minutes later he was called again. The boy was off a second time. This time the sheriff toted the fleet-footed child to his office for safe keeping until his parents arrived.

The Army, at a cost of about $1,800,000,000, has recovered and rebuilt material worth $13,600,000,000 since World War II.

Mexicans Plan In Advance for Everest Climb

An 11-man team already is practicing for the Everest assault, tentatively planned for the autumn of 1955 or 1957.

The Mexican foreign ministry is negotiating with New Delhi to grab a bid for the climb, if the British cancel a permit they have for 1955.

Mexicans, who are accustomed to living on some of the steepest slopes in the western hemisphere, take their mountain climbing seriously. There are dozens of "Alpine" clubs whose members each year tackle volcanic peaks such as Popocatepetl, snow - capped Orizaba peak and the Nevada de Toluca.

Leading the Mexican Everest expedition will be Jose Mendez Tejada, rated as the nation's best mountaineer. Other members are Ricardo Villalobos, German Gomez, Antonio Romero Benavides, Lenin Zabra Ramirez, Francisco Ortiz, Ramon Rivera, Gualberto Alvarado, Adolfo Gutlierrez Soto, Agustin Aldama and Agustin Alvarez Avalos. There also are five alternates.

The Mexican government is helping the climbers prepare for the attempt. The defense ministry is gathering weather information, charts and diet tables. The army gives the climbers periodic physical checks, and is briefing them on medicine.

While none of the Mexican peaks are as difficult as Everest, the Mexican expedition has been choosing the most difficult routes on "Popo" for training.

The 17,876-foot peak is stormed by hundreds of amateur climbers each year. Most of them choose the easier routes, but at least half-a-dozen are killed each year on the mountain.

Marion Sailor Begins Final 4-Year-Enlistment

James Anthony Totaro of 153 Canby Ct. recently completed 16 years' continuous service in the Navy and re-enlisted for four more years at the U.S. Navy Recruiting Station here. An Aviation Machinist Mate First Class, he was transferred to Washington, D. C., where he is awaiting further assignment.

Totaro was last stationed at the Naval Air Station at Jacksonville, Fla. There for over a year, he was on several cruises. A graduate of Harding High School, he entered the service here in August, 1937. Totaro was stationed in the Pacific during World War II.

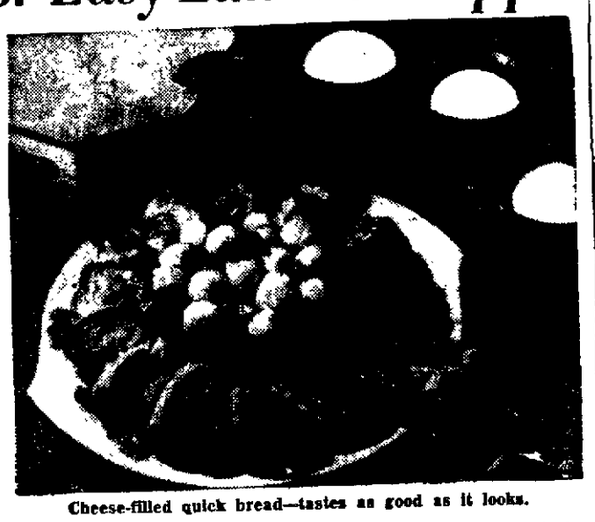
His wife, Estelle, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Totaro, reside at the Canby Ct. address. Mr. and Mrs. Totaro operate a retail grocery store at 394 W. Center St. Upon completion of his four years, Totaro will be eligible for retirement.

It is believed that eyeglasses were invented in Florence, Italy, about 1285.

Suggestion for Easy Lunch or Supper

Cheese Ring Served With Soup Makes Quick, Delicious Meal

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor



Cheese-filled quick bread—tastes as good as it looks.

Football season is here and teen-age daughter wants to bring the gang home after one of the games. Your own two-tables-of-bridge club is coming for Saturday lunch. Those nice new neighbors who are having such a hard time getting settled—you'd like to ask them to Sunday night supper. It's cool weather. Everyone's in the mood for invitations. You like to be hospitable—but oh dear, what to serve?

Well, here's an easy-does-it suggestion. For any of these lunch or supper occasions, offer this mouth-watering-to-look-at and delicious-to-taste Cheese Ring with a special hot soup. You can use prepared biscuit mix for this hot bread, make it up in the morning, cover it carefully with waxed paper and refrigerate it. Then half an hour before your guests arrive, you pop it into the oven and serve it piping hot with little balls of sweet or salt butter.

For the soup, exert your creative talents and use the canned variety in combination with other foods and piquant seasonings. We go on soup binges; every time we find a variation of canned soup our guests particularly enjoy, we serve it over and over. Our latest specialty of the house is a 13-ounce can of creamy vichysoisse soup combined with a 7-to-10½-ounce can of minced clams, thinned with cream or milk and sprinkled lavishly with chopped chives or parsley. We use heavy or thin cream, homogenized milk or a combination of cream and milk — depending on our budget and how many weight-watchers we are serving. The amount of cream and milk depends on our taste buds at the moment and the number of people around. Eastern guests go wild about this combination; and up to now all our Midwestern tasters have been crazy about it, too. In cool weather heat the soup carefully; in warm weather, it's best chilled. But hot or cold, be sure to sprinkle the soup, after it's ladled into cups or bowls, with a lot of minced chives or parsley.

If you want to, you can add a vegetable salad to this menu. For dessert, we advise a fruit compote—with your very best bookies.

CHEESE RING

Ingredients: ¾ cup milk, 3 cups biscuit mix, softened butter, 1½ cups shredded cheddar cheese, melted butter.

Method: Add milk to biscuit mix, stirring lightly, until it can be shape into a ball. Turn out on floured cloth. Knead slightly until smooth. Roll into ½ inch thick rectangle. Spread with softened butter; sprinkle liberally with shredded cheese. Carefully roll up like a jelly roll. Bring the two ends together, sealing with a bit of milk, to form a ring. Place on a buttered cookie sheet. Using sharp scissors, make slanting cuts through the ring almost to the center, making slices 2 inches wide. Turn each section cut side down on the sheet, so that the cut sides lie almost flat. Brush lightly with melted butter. Bake in hot (400F) oven about 15 minutes or until lightly browned. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Council at Green Camp To Discuss Light Levy

The Green Camp village council will hold a special meeting in the township hall, Oct. 27, to explain the electrical contract and necessity for the passage of a special 4-mill levy to provide street lights in Green Camp. Letters are being prepared for all residents of the village, urging them to attend this meeting.

At the last Council session, Robert Kegg, marshal, submitted his resignation, due to ill health, which was accepted by Mayor Robert D. Lashey. The mayor did not announce a successor.

The traffic situation was talked over and further plans to halt speeders and reckless drivers were made.

Although Michigan is known as the "Wolverine State," biologists say the first native-born Wolverine didn't show up in the state until 1953 when one was born at the Detroit Zoo.

German Fleet Remains Under Par Despite Large Increase

BONN, Germany (UP)—The tonnage of the West German merchant fleet has increased 1,300% since 1948, but is still less than half the size of the German fleet of 1939, and less than one-third the size of that of 1914.

The government "Bulletin" reports that from 1945 until mid-1948, when West Germany was governed under the principles of Potsdam, which forbade the construction of any type of sea-going vessel, West Germany's merchant fleet totalled but 120,000 tons.

In April, 1949, however, the western allies, who had already agreed to an economic fusion of the British, French and American zones, also partially lifted restrictions on ship-building. Now, West Germany, a near-sovereign republic, can make any kind of vessel except warships, and her merchant fleet tonnage has jumped to 1,600,000.

Meanwhile, the three great ports of Hamburg, Bremen and Bremerhaven have been largely repaired. At the end of the war, only 10% of the wharf buildings, 28% of the warehouse space, 20% of the cranes and 32% of the harbor railway network remained intact in Hamburg, with Bremen and Bremerhaven damaged to the same extent.

But by the end of last year, 50% of the wharf buildings, 41% of the warehouse space and 56% of the cranes and the entire rail network had been restored in Hamburg. In Bremen, the port was working at 85% of pre-war capacity. Bremerhaven had been almost completely restored.

Foreign lines, which by-passed West German ports completely until 1948, are now using them again. By the end of 1952, 101 foreign lines were using Hamburg, which cleared 264 foreign ships each month. Bremen registered 73 foreign lines with 154 foreign ships cleared monthly.

Reconstruction of shipbuilding yards either destroyed by bombing or dismantled as reparations after the war has gone somewhat slower, due to lack of capital, and what revival there has been to date has been financed chiefly by government loans.

Many yards that built ships before the war now limit themselves to ship repairing, which brings in considerable foreign exchange. The vast Hamburg shipyards of Blochm and Voss, which before the war employed 20,000 men, are now being rebuilt, but will do repair work only.

Nevertheless, at the end of April, 1953, West German shipyards had 270 seagoing vessels totalling 985,856 tons under construction. Eighty-four of these ships, totalling 517,483 tons, were being built for foreign buyers. West German shipyards now employ 76,718 persons.

More than two million Americans will be living in mobile homes by the end of the year, it was revealed when the trailer coach industry staged its annual showing. Almost three quarters of a million homes on wheels will be in use, and most of the new ones will be 30 feet or more in length—as long as the "long side" of the average new home.

Guadrupled in Decade

Research Expenditures Hit 3½ Billion

WASHINGTON (NANA) — One of the significant developments in the American economy in recent years is the rapid expansion in scientific research and development in a variety of fields.

Total scientific research expenditures in 1952 are officially estimated at more than $3,500,000,000, about two-thirds of it for work carried on in facilities owned or operated by private industry. This sum is more than four times the equivalent yearly spending at the beginning of World War II, a rate of growth that is greater than that of the nation's economy as a whole in the period.

THE NATIONAL defense needs over the past decade have, of course, been a big stimulus, especially to basic research, and have brought some spectacular results, particularly in the field of atomic energy.

However, private industry has likewise greatly increased its own expenditures both for basic and applied research. This is of particular importance to the well-being of the average American, since new products and improvements of old ones have consistently played a decisive part in the growth of the economy and the rise in our living standards.

The status of research in the United States has been developed in a special study prepared by the Bureau of Labor statistics in cooperation with the Department of Defense. It is based on a nationwide survey in mid-1952 of companies engaged in scientific and engineering research and development. Much research work is also done in colleges and universities, and in government laboratories, but detailed information for these was not obtained. Nor does the study touch on research in the social sciences.

ONE OF THE interesting results of the survey is the extent of research being financed by private industry, even where work is done at the request of the government and contributes to national defense. The chemical industry, for example, No. 3 industry in research expenditures, pays 93 cents of its research dollar out of its own pocket. Petroleum's proportion is even higher, paying about 97 cents of its research dollar, while the equivalent ratio in automobiles, food and primary metals was better than 90 cents.

As is to be expected, government financing of research and development is high where the national - defense factor is paramount. This is notably the case in the aircraft field where U. S. funds represented 85 per cent of research expenditures. Electrical machinery and the professional-and scientific-instrument industries are two others with big roles in defense, and more than half their research expenditures are government-financed.

The companies studied in the survey employed 94,000 research engineers and scientists and an additional 140,000 persons as supporting personnel for this work.

Foxes Used To Rid Island of Rabbits

DUBLIN (UP)—On the Saltee Islands, six miles off Ireland's south coast, a strange hunt has begun. Michael Neale, 46, self - styled Prince of the Saltee Islands, and their owner, organized it.

Three years ago, in an effort to rid these islands of the many rabbits. Neale flew about 500 into the islands, but the rabbits bred faster than the cats killed them.

The uninhabited islands, regarded as Ireland's finest bird sanctuary, have now been subjected to a new invasion—this time by foxes.

Neale, determined to rid his property—which he once stated he hoped to develop as a tourist attraction—of the rabbits, made an 800-mile tour of Ireland in search of foxes. He collected 20 cubs by digging them out of their lairs and they were taken to the house of a friend in County Wexford and kept in cpativity until they were big enough to hunt.

The foxes have now been landed on the islands, with the inevitable result that bird-lovers throughout Ireland are up in arms, maintaining that the birds will prove easier prey for the foxes than the rabbits

But Neale, who recently spent three days and nights on the islands, said he never saw any of the foxes go near the birds.

Some months are expected to elapse before any considerable diminution in the rabbit population can be expected.

Former Guide Making Scent Business Pay Well

CUMBERLAND, Me. (UP)—Walter L. Arnold, 59, is in the scent business.

The former guide and trapper sells dog scents to 3,000 customers. Arnold explained his odd business: "The scents are to keep Rover from cutting out after the wrong game. Say you're rabbit hunting and the dog persists in chasing deer. Well, you make a muzzle out of a rag soaked with deer scent and put it on Rover. He associates deer scent with a muzzle and — chances are — never chases another deer."

Although their country is in the Northern Hemisphere, residents of El Salvador call the May-October wet season winter and the dry months in the rest of the year summer.

Hawk That Arrived For Dinner Still There

OMAHA, Neb. (UP)—Rex Addis and his family have a chicken hawk that came to dinner.

The hawk was fed by the family. It spends most of its time in nearby trees, but swoops down to eat and visit with the Addis' 11-year-old son, Michael.

Addis said the hawk has frightened away all dogs, cats, squirrels, and birds in the neighborhood. Michael has grown quite fond of the bird.

The Army helped build the first roads and canals in the United States. Army engineers and cavalrymen played a major role in surveying and building the route of the Union Pacific, the first railroad in the world to span a continent and join two oceans.

Physician Suggests Cure for Child's Attraction to Fire

SAN FRANC.SCO (NANA) — Is Junior a potential firebug? Burn it out of him, advises Dr. Harry F Dietrich of Beverly Hills, Cal , one of the top authorities in the nation on accident prevention among children

Dr Dietrich is not in accord with the many safety authorities who feel that the thing to do is to keep matches away from children

Instead, he reasons, the best thing to do is to get the mystery and delight out of lighting matches so far as youngsters are concerned

As his contribution to Fire Prevention Week, now under way, Dr Dietrich suggests that, if you would cure your four or five-year-old of the urge to light matches—let him light them

Don't harbor them as a mysterious pleasure limited to adults Give him a big box of old-style kitchen matches, plant him and the matches outdoors, and make him light them all, one by one Don't let him stop halfway. Make it a task— make him light every one of them Don't let him stop till he's done all of them.

If he lags give him a hard time Make him do them all— and long before he finishes according to Dr Dietrich, he will have lost interest in lighting matches.

Many of the most civilized countries of the world have death rates of around 10 per thousand per year, but are expected to have slowly rising death rates in the years to come as death takes an increasing toll in the aging populations

No Routine Accidents For California Trucks

SACRAMENTO, Calif (UP) — Truck accidents have been running to the unusual in California recently

A truck overturned south of Sacramento, spilling 400 boxes of grapes on the highways Before patrolmen and local firemen could hose the slippery grapes off the roadway, motorists were met with roads as slippery as in wintertime

In Los Angeles, a tank truck overturned and 6500 gallons of tallow flooded the highway Again much skidding and sliding but no accidents

Some 550 000 bees were liberated near Bakersfield when a truck carrying 90 beehives crashed into another truck. The second truck caught fire and a ticklish fight followed in putting out the blaze while fighting off the bees

There was no decent break.

When a truck overturned off Placerville, only 10 per cent of its cargo of eggs was damaged

Oyster Bisque Warm and Satisfying

Some people like oysters served on the half shell with a sharp horseradish sauce, some like them fried a rich golden brown but almost everyone enjoys a steaming bowl of oyster soup

For a family or company dinner, try this rich oyster stew for your first course. It takes just a few minutes to make Use 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, 1½ teaspoons salt, dash of cayenne, dash of paprika, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 1 cup top milk or light cream, 3 cups milk, 1 cup coarsely chopped oysters (1¼ cups whole oysters), ¼ cup butter, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley

Combine tapioca, salt, cayenne, paprika, onion top milk, and milk in top of double boiler Place over rapidly boiling water and cook 10 to 15 minutes, stirring frequently. Add oysters and butter. Mix and keep over hot water 15 to 20 minutes, to thoroughly blend flavors. Serve in cups or bowls Garnish with chopped parsley. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Valentino Has Name Troubles

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UP) — Nobody will believe a handsome restaurant worker here when he tells them his name is Rudolph Valentino

"They think I'm kidding," he explained with and engaging smile

Actually, there is no relation between Rochester's Rudolph and the movie's idolized lover of yesteryear with the same name

But enough years have passed to dim memories of the great Valentino's appearance, so there is quite a fuss whenever anyone discovers Rochester Rudolph's full name.

"The second time someone meets me the wisecracks start," the local man points out "It's come to a point where I don't tell anyone my last name if I can help it"

When he was younger the Rochesterian felt his name gave him a psychological edge with the opposite sex

"It certainly never scared any girls away," he said

At the restaurant where Rudolph works, many bets have been made over whether or not his name is "real" The losers generally want to know how good a lover Rochester Rudy is.

When he tried to enlist in the Marine Corps, the recruiting officer tore up his first application Thought he was being a wise guy

When Rudolph attended a school of dramatics, the first thing mother and father following his birth in Radicena, Italy, 35 years ago. Dad finally won out.

The present R. Valentino was born 100 miles from the screen idol's home in Naples, a year to the month after the actor died The local Rudy said his father knew the actor.

"But he tells me that's not the reason he named me Rudolph," he explained "He says he just liked the name"

The "Spanish Main" originally referred to the Spanish colonies on the mainland of South America, but the term was extended to include the islands and waters of the Americas which were under Spanish control.

Farm Landscaping Takes Work, Time

They say much attention should be given to the beauty of a farm, and to ithe beauty of a farm, and to its "utility value," which is described as arrangement of buildings, feed and landscaping so that the greatest possible efficiency results

For instance, a farm driveway should enter on the north or west side of the house and the house itself should face the driveway. The planners say this permits use of the front door, and leaves the front of the house for window space

The parking area, according to the experts, should be located opposite the farm house Farm buildings should be arranged around a court, located behind the farm house This permits the farmer to end his daily chores at the house

The experts say the source of livestock feed should be located between the large animal consumers, usually hogs and cattle, and near the poultry house. A windbreak should be to the north and west of the farm buildings and no closer to them than 100 to 125 feet.

The steel industry is the largest single user of cobalt, a major alloying element

Part of Streamlining Move

'On-the-Job' Training Plan Adopted by PUCO

By BILL TERRY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state utilities commission has set up an unusual "on-the-job training program," for its employes as part of its program to streamline its operations.

The commission decided about 18 months ago old ways of doing things would have to be junked for up-to-date methods, so it could keep pace with demands made for its services.

The commission is responsible for seeing the public is well served by a number of different industries—gas, trucking, electric, water, bus, and train.

It found few of its employes knew how their work fitted into that of workers in other departments.

"There was a lack of appreciation of the overall picture of utility regulation and the needs of the public," explained Commissioner Ralph Winter. "There was a tendency to build a wall around a department.

"Many inquiries of the public were answered incorrectly or not answered at all," he continued.

So, the commission invited every utility industry it regulates to present a series of lectures for commission personnel. There is one all-day program a month, open also to the general public. The industry explains its background and problems in meeting public demands.

Ohio Bell Telephone Co conducted the first four meetings.

Commission personnel learned, among other things, about the historical development of the telephone industry in Ohio, how the company tries to forecast future demands for service, how complex telephone equipment is kept in working order, how Ohio Bell designs rate schedules, and what the future holds for telephone users.

Many subjects were of a highly technical nature.

"We feel that all of us better understand our individual jobs," Winter said. "Everybody can see more clearly just why his job is important in the whole picture of regulation. These objectives will become clearer as each industry is studied and restudied."

The Ohio Independent Telephone Assn. now is putting on an educational program for commission personnel. Gas and electric problems are next on the program. Later there will be refresher courses on each industry.

Copies of lectures will be given each staff member for reference, and the information will be kept up to date.

"When a new emplove joins our staff in the future he will be handed a copy of these informative talks so he may use as little time as possible in getting acquainted with what is expected of him," Winter said.

"We have all seen two equally matched football teams play. The team that won probably was made up of men who not only fully understood their assignments on each play but also understood what was expected of each of his teammates."

"Have you ever wondered what makes one of our infantry divisions a better fighting unit than another equipped with the same weapons and supplies? It is the fact that the members of the so-called crack outfit not only understands his individual duties but also what is expected of the other fellow. The rifleman understand the use of his rifle but also knows where artillery fits into the picture, what can be done with tanks, and so forth."

Winter says the division with the outstanding record and high morale has developed team work and understanding. That's the goal of the commission "on-the-job training program."

He expressed the objective in these words:

"We hope as the months and years roll by and as we add to our storehouse of knowledge we all will gain a better understanding of our responsibilities.

"When this stage is reached, we feel that we will be more intelligently carrying out the duties which the Legislature has laid down for us to follow."

Streetcar Won't Wait For Wedding License

MILWAUKEE (UP) — Many young couples want to get married in a hurry, for one reason or another.

This couple rushed into the courthouse and asked the elevator operator to whisk them up to the judge on the fifth floor in a hurry.

Why?

They wanted to get married before the time limit on their streetcar transfers expired.

Ancient Dog Bred

TEL AVIV (AP)—The Saluki, the oldest known kind of tamed dog with which the Egyptian Pharios already used to hunt, is now being bred in Israel.

The interesting canine experiment with the progenitor of the modern greyhound, wolfshund or (Russian) borzoi, has been initiated here by Dr. Gershon Steiner, formerly veterinary instructor at the Research Station at Brno (Czechoslovakia) University and for the last thirteen years a resident of this country. He told a "Jerusalem Post" reporter that since his arrival in what was then still Mandatory Palestine, he has been searching for the Saluki which, he declares, is also identical with the dog repeatedly mentioned in the Bible. While the late King Abdullah of Hashemite Jordan kept a widely known variety of Saluki kennels, it was rather difficult for Dr. Steiner to discover the first fullfledged breeding pair on this side of the Jordan. Now there are an unspecified number of Salukis in Jordan and 13 in Israel against 27 in U.S.A. and 12 each in France and England.

Thistles for Wheat?

HERMISTON, Ore. (AP) — Thistles are being suggested as a cash farm crop instead of wheat. Dr. Carl Larson of the Umatilla Field Station says the safflower, a member of the thistle family, might do well on Pacific Northwest lands being taken out of wheat production under the new acreage controls program.

The suggestion came originally from George Penrose, Union Pacific Railroad agricultural agent at Portland, Ore. He said safflower oil is used in paints because of its high protein content.

SCENIC SHOES. Scenes tooled on the soles and heels of shoes were featured in a 1953 shoe repairing competition in London.

Use of Stills Okayed In College Laboratory

OXFORD, Miss (UP)—Four first cousins to the backwoods moonshine still are slated to go into operation on the University of Mississippi campus here and "revenooers" say they're legitimate.

Registered with the Bureau of Internal Revenue, the stills will be used in the college's new $50,000 chemical engineering laboratories for experiments in purifying turpentine, refining petroleum and producing drinking water from salt water.

The college says the new equipment will give the student "basic knowledge to prepare him for any situation" but officials add the professors will carry the keys to the room housing the four stills.

MT. CARMEL HELPS IRISH

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP)—There is a little of Mount Carmel (Chicago) High School connected with the Notre Dame football squad. Assistant coaches Bob McBride and Terry Brennan are former Mount Carmel coaches. Squad members Dan Sannon, Tom Carey, Paul Matz Deick Frasor and Ben Zajeski are graduates of the school.

Magnet Unlocks Boy

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—When seven-year-old Stephen Struffolino swallowed a padlock, doctors at Ellis Hospital weren't stumped at all.

With the aid of a small but powerful magnet the lock was extracted from the boy's stomach. Forty-eight hours later Stephen was sitting at the dinner table.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Ivy Stems

Q: Kindly tell me how to remove stems and tiny pieces that have stuck to the brick walls of my home after pulling off the ivy.

A: Tentacles adhering to the brick can be removed either by lightly wire brushing the surfaces or rubbing with a "0" sandpaper.

Plaster Wall Over Blocks

Q: My rear hall going down to the basement runs along even with the foundation. This wall was plastered, but has been crumbling and powdering for some time. I chipped away the old plaster and am ready to re-plaster the wall again. I bought some special type of reinforced oil coating to paint over the blocks in this area to make it waterproof. Will this oil have any affect on the adhesive value of the plaster? Would this be the best method?

A: Coating the blocks with oil would prevent plaster from adhering to the surface. The best procedure is to coat the concrete blocks with a white portland cement mortar. This would give you the plaster effect desired and will not be affected by dampness or condensation. Detailed information on the mixing and application of cement plaster can be obtained in booklet form from the Portland Cement Assn., 33 W. Grand Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Removing Lipstick From Shingles

Q: Is there any way to remove lipstick writing from an asbestos shingle house?

A: Scrape off as much of the lipstick as possible with a knife blade and then cover it with a thick layer of a paste mixture of powdered whiting and benzine (be careful of fire). Allow this to remain until dry and repeat the treatment if necessary. If any stains remain, bleach them out with a saturated solution of denatured alcohol and oxalic acid (sold at paint stores). Apply liberally and allow to remain for several hours, then rinse thoroughly with clear water.

Q: I have a combination cook stove and would like to know how I can keep the top of the stove black. I have used stove polish and also put on black enamel, but it always burns off and turns white over the coal fire.

A: One reason why most of the stove polish does not stay on is that you run your coal fire too hot and every time the lids and the rest of the top becomes fired everything on the surface burns off. Try to control your drafts so as to eliminate the excessive heat at the top of the stove. You might also try the following method: The treatment may be smoky for a while. Smooth the top by rubbing with coarse sandpaper to get a smooth surface and to remove any rust. While the metal is cold, rub in some raw linseed oil and allow to soak for one-half hour or so, and be sure excessive oil is wiped off; then start and maintain a low fire for an hour or so. Put out the fire and then apply stove polish.

Britain in Guessing Game

Churchill May Be Grooming Successor

By ALEC DE MONTMORENCY

NEW YORK (NANA) — The Marquess of Salisbury, who has shared with Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill the task of conducting Britain's foreign affairs during the long illness and convalescence of Anthony Eden, may be named foreign secretary on a permanent basis in the coming reshuffle of the British cabinet Furthermore, according to certain indications, he may now be called to assume Churchill s succession if Sir Winston s ill health or death vacates the premiership

The Scotsman of Edinburgh reports that Churchill, who was surprised and delighted at the way the Labor Party leaders dropped, in the case of Salisbury their traditional hostility to having a peer in charge of the foreign office has been considering the suggestion of giving him the foreign secretaryship in the new cabinet

THE PRIME MINISTER'S thesis, according to that report is that it is becoming more and more difficult in view of the unremitting pressure of the international situation, for the holder of the post of foreign secretary to do his work properly while at the same time attending the House of Commons. The only alternative, it is thus contended is for the foreign secretary to be a member of the House of Lords where the wear and tear on his health would at any rate, be minimized.

The arrangement which would allow Eden more time for his job as deputy prime minister and enable Churchill to obtain a corresponding easement of his burden as prime minister, would also prepare British opinion to accept Salisbury as Churchill's eventual successor in preference to Eden or Chancellor of the Exchequer R A Butler Another reason for the move may well be the fact that, whether accidentally or not the continuing absence of Eden from active direction of the foreign office has coincided with an amazing upsurge of British prestige and leadership on the international scene

OF COURSE THE CONSTANT improvement in Britain's economic and financial situation under the able fiscal management of Butler, the recent development of revolutionary new weapons by the country's scientists and engineers and even the colorful ceremonies of Queen Elizabeth II s coronation obviously played a great part in bringing about the present resurgence of Britain's influence in the world

But, even so, the dynamic direction of the British foreign policies by the Churchill - Salisbury team undoubtedly has succeeded in taking the utmost advantage of it all to restore Britain s international position within a few short months

Entirely in line with those reported plans of Sir Winston s is the known fact that the 59-year-old Salisbury, who spearheaded the Tory revolt against the late Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's Munich policies, enjoys a unique position in the esteem of Churchill The 79-year-old Tory leader admires him to the point of accepting from him the bluntest remonstrations upon occasion.

IT WOULD THUS SEEM QUITE possible that, for England s sake, Churchill has already persuaded both Eden and Butler to cooperate with him for Salisbury s eventual elevation to the Premiership Such an arrangement would permit the ailing Eden to "last" longer and it would allow Butler to pursue to the end his long range plans for Britain s full economic recovery—thus probably insuring continued conservative victories at the polls The chance to achieve the restoration of Britain's imperial greatness which Churchill probably will not live to see but which has been the one overriding ambition of his late years may be at that price Because of the great discipline traditionally prevailing in high Tory councils, the expected struggle between Eden and Butler for Churchill s succession may thus not take place at all Instead his highly successful "team" would then carry on with their assigned tasks, with a minimum of disturbance working for his cherished goal under Salisbury's leadership

California Island Yields Indian Lore

LOS ANGELES Calif (UP)—Off barren San Nicolas Island, 56 miles off the southern coast of California, a large Indian population lived before Columbus discovered America anthropologists from the University of California at Los Angeles report

A survey of the island recently completed by Dr Clement Meighan and Hal Eberhart of the university s anthropology department said approximately 68 prehistoric village sites were identified on the island The population was believed to number about 1 000 before the Spaniards came to California

Experts said the Indians were known as Nicolenos and may have come from Shoshone stock They settled on the 32 square-mile island about 1000 A D

All but one female survivor died in Spanish missions on the mainland She had been left behind when the Spaniards took the group to the missions

The woman lived alone on the island for 18 years but in 1835 she was found and taken to Santa Barbara Calif, where she died soon afterward

Peoples' Appetites Can't Be Dictated

AMES Ia (UP) — A Harvard University nutritionist says people can't be oriented overnight to a new diet just because it's good for them And United States food habits can't be imposed on others with too much success

Dr Florence Kluckhohn of Harvard's laboratory of social relations conducting a lecture series at Iowa State College said the food patterns of 'a given group of people are intricately interrelated with their whole culture, values and traditions"

Dr. Kluckhohn cited an example of the danger of trying to convert non-Americans to American food habits

She said welfare workers inadvertently did more harm than good after World War I when they taught Spanish-American in many villages to use wheat flour instead of corn to make their tortillas

"This," she said "deprived them of their main source of calcium which had come from the pulverized limestone used in making corn tortillas

Dr Kluckhohn described the culture and family life of the Spanish-Americans in old Mexico She told how their diet is a traditional one

"There basic foods are beans of various types some meat little or no milk, corn and edible plants," she said 'Small children eat the same foods as adults with none of our own emphasis on special baby foods"

'In contrast, the American family is unusual for the children are brought up to be highly independent and competition is keen"

She pointed out that in the Mexican family there is dependency

"American men and women frequently know other persons much better than they do their own brothers and sisters' Dr Kluckhohn said

Fort William Henry Attracts Many Tourists

LAKE GEORGE N Y (UP)— Fort William Henry where archaeologists are still uncovering skeletons from the French and Indian Wars, attracted some 21 000 visitors in one month when it was opened to the public for the first time this summer

Restoration of the fort is still underway and is scheduled for completion next spring

Of prime interest to visitors is a corner of the fort burial ground which was unmarked and lost for 200 years Archaeologists have recovered well preserved skeletons in the grounds

A cache of flints 2 000 years old was dug up from beneath the fort's foundation
